

Edgar Marron

Journal #3

One of the dates that nobody will ever forget is 9-11-01. I was just entering second period when my Science teacher, Mr. Carroll, told us to be quite and pay attention. Finally our teacher at us and told us something horrible had happened. He said a plane had crashed with one of the twin towers. Then we heard about the second plane and that's when everybody began to worry. A couple of minutes later we heard about the pentagon and the fourth plane. Nobody thought anybody would be stupid enough to attack one of the most powerful countries in the world. A couple of days later we heard it had been Bin Laden. Now, nobody knows where he is and.