On Tuesday morning of September 11, when I was at my teacher's history class the next door teacher came in and told us that they had attacked New York.

When I was going to the gym some kids said that World War 3 had started. Then my friend said "The first airplane crashed at 8:30 and at 8:40". When I heard that the building had fallen I got sad because of the people that died. Some kids said "poor people that were in the towers".

I can't believe that it has been 1 year since the September 11 attack in New York. My friend said "this really got the United States united".
