

JONSSON, Roy Hans
 July 20, 1936 - April 19, 2010
 After a two year battle with colon cancer Roy died peacefully at home with his family nearby. He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Margaret, daughter, Karen (Peter), grandsons Nikolas, Bryce and Nolan, son Alan (Joanne), brother Carl (Mavis) and a large extended family. Roy was born in Fort St John, B.C. and grew up in Port Alberni. He attended UBC, earning a B.Ed. degree, and taught senior geography at Windsor Secondary School for 28 years. In 1991 he left teaching and turned his gardening hobby into a profession. In his second career he became a certified landscape consultant, working in the compost industry, instructing for North Vancouver Continuing Ed, VanDusen and UBC and doing consultations for home gardeners. As a garden columnist he wrote "Sow it Grows" for the North Shore News for 18 years and in 2007 published the garden book "Garden Sense - Secrets of an Experienced Gardener". He was also known as a popular speaker at garden clubs around the Lower Mainland. In 1995 Roy joined the Canadian Executive Service Organization and did volunteer horticultural assignments in Tanzania, Hungary, China, Philippines and Honduras. A gathering to honour Roy and celebrate his life will be held on Friday April 30 2pm at Boal Chapel 1505 Lillooet Road North Vancouver. Donations to LGH Foundation 231 East 15 Street North Vancouver V7L 2L7 marked for the new North Shore Hospice garden would be appreciated.

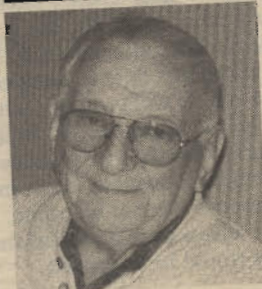

First Memorial
 Boal Chapel 604-980-3451

Roy Jonsson was teacher at Windsor Secondary 28 years leaving in 1991.

COOK - Susan Gaye (Suzanne)
 1958-2011. It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Suzanne. Born in Vancouver BC on September 23rd she passed away on June 2nd after a courageous battle with cancer. Suzanne began her career in the early 80's teaching French in North Vancouver and quickly found passion teaching Drama at Carson Graham School before transferring to Seycove School where she created and encouraged a unique world of self expression for the students. With an adventurous spirit she travelled the world having wonderful adventures and meeting many friends around the world. Suzanne taught her students with the same zest that she lived and travelled by. Her saying in the classrooms was "Make it Happen". In 1994 she met the love of her life Larrie and married in 1996. Suzanne and Larrie continued to travel and entertain family, friends and homestays with fabulous meals in their home. She was involved with two book clubs and had many loving friends. Having a strong spirit she managed one last birthday celebration with her two younger sisters. Suzanne is survived by her loving husband Larrie, sisters Diane (Greg), Linda (Jeff) nieces Brittany, Alicia, Taylor, Alexandra and great niece Summer. She will also be missed by the two other men in her life her wonderful dog Bentley and her cat Tom. Special thanks to the staff at the North Shore Hospice and the staff at the Oncology Department at VGH. A memorial service will be held at the Cove Community Church in Seycove High School at 1:00 on June 11, 2011 followed by a celebration of Suzanne's life. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Cancer Society for Ovarian Cancer.

Suzanne Cook was drama teacher at Seycove and lived on Cliffmont for many years.

MORTER - Eric Herbert,
 Born June 7, 1921, passed away peacefully on the early hours of June 26, 2008 at North Vancouver, B.C. Eric is survived by his loving wife Olga, daughter Jennifer (Antonio) and son Michael (Diane), and grandchildren Pablo, Steven and Norman. He will be lovingly remembered by extended family members, Mercedes and Carlos, godchildren Patricia, Francis and John. He will be also missed dearly by his very close family friends David, Eugene, Debora (Paul), Hebe (Martin), Ligia. Being such a socializing enthusiast, he leaves an impressive list of friends and acquaintances all over the world that will evoke him with a smile for his visits and extensive communications. He will also be missed at the Parkgate Seniors Community Center, and Deep Cove Historical Society where he was an active participant and organizer. A memorial service to celebrate his life will held on Saturday, July 5th, 2008 at 2:00pm at First Memorial, Boal Chapel, 1505 Lillooet Road, North Vancouver, B.C.

Eric Morter was a DC Heritage member and its Treasurer

JELLET - Virginia passed away on February 11th, 2007 in her 95th year. Pre-deceased by husband Jack, son John, brother Arthur and sisters Leona and Emily. Affectionately loved and remembered by 'adopted' family Karen, Jim, Jeff and Nicki and also many friends. Survived by niece Shirley (Bill) and nephew Dion (Carole). Mrs. J was a Deep Cove resident for more than 65 years. She had a special love for children, her flower garden and the outdoors. Her life touched many people. Thanks to Dr. Craig Bergstrom and to the caring staff at Capilano Care Centre, Lions Gate Palliative Care and Sunrise Assisted Living. No service by request. Donations in Virginia's name to Lions Gate Hospital/ Foundation Hospice Fund would be appreciated.

Mr. & Mrs. Jellet both worked at Burrard View School for many years in the 1950s.
 He was janitor and she worked in the kitchen among other things.