

Paul J. Harris

---

From: Patricia Lambert Stock [plstock@pilot.msu.edu]
Sent: Sunday, December 01, 2002 6:38 PM
To: Paul J. Harris
Subject: Re: Possible Tottenville Photo

>Hi Paul,

I want to thank you again for calling me and sharing the information you have with me. It is truly kind and generous of you, and I do appreciate it.

The house in the photograph is not one I recognize. It is definitely not 35 Androvette St. in Charleston, Staten Island (right near Tottenville). Ethel Lambert, in this photograph, is younger than I ever remember her, so the photo is perhaps before I was born. I am not the young girl in the corner of the photo.

Could this be the house in Montazuma? I was there once as a small child. I don't remember the house, but I do recall a wash line and a kind of garage structure--both of which could be the ones in this photo.

Please do give my best to Helen when you speak with her next.

Best,
Patti

*****

>Hi Pat,

>
>Great to finally "meet" you today on the telephone. I am quickly firing off >a copy of the picture that we discussed earlier today. Helen seemed to think >it may have been Tottenville, Staten Island, about 1946. Could it possibly >be you on the right, in front of the house? Any information about time and >location of photo would help.

>
>Sincerely,
>
>Paul J. Harris

>
>Attachment converted: Macintosh HD:Tottenville.jpg (JPEG/prvw) (0001E512)

--

Patricia Lambert Stock, Professor of English and Professor of Education
President-elect, National Council of Teachers of English
Michigan State University, 300 Bessey Hall, East Lansing, MI 48824-1033
Telephone: 517/432-3610; Fax: 517/432-3828; E-mail: plstock@msu.edu