Dearest Ones of the Lambert Circle—

Greetings! what a joy and privilege just to know that you all belong & us! Like cousin Maryrue, I am so thankful for the Lambert Heritage!

Do you know that when Grandmother Lambert died that she left in her "Will," the Request that all of her children, grandchildren and children & be-should memorize the 103rd Psalm! To me this is a wonderful Heritage! How happy we should all be & share such a wonderful Heritage!

How I should miss my dear Sister Bertha's & Other Dears Letters! They were both a great inspiration & me and their lives were most helpful & me always!

Cousin Osborne Lambert, I wish to congratulate you on your Poetry you wrote for our last letter - It reminded me of my own Saintly Mother, (wife of Rev. D. W. Lambert) who raised 10 children and was a wonderful Mother!

Glenn & Mabel Lambert, congratulations on that fine new grandson - It seems to me that you both grow younger looking and handsomer as Time goes on!

Daniel Harris,
Your notes about your precious Mother Bertha Lambert Harris, were very beautiful to me and sounded just like her own sweet Self. She was a precious Sister to me and oh! how I do miss her!

It doesn't seem possible that dear Brother Otterbein has gone! He visited me every week (here in the Sanitarium and his talks and inspirational thoughts brought great joy to me.

Now we shall miss his letter in the next package! But his life will be a great inspiration to us always.

I think we should have some new additions to help fill the vacant places of those dear ones who have gone on.

So, I am recommending the names of:

(1) Horace Lambert Mayne,
Son of Hannah Lambert Mayne,
address 336 West First Ave.,
Columbus, Ohio.

(2) Rev. James Lowell Harris
173 Beverly Road,
Syracuse, New York.
Son of Mr. Bertha Lambert Harris.

(3) Mrs Pauline Lambert Warfel.
Daughter of Otterbein Lambert of Morton — Pa.

Welcome to all you new ones - we are happy to hear from each
and every one of you.
With very best wishes and a God bless you every one,
Your devoted Cousin,
Caroline L. Charles
