Dear Dick

Many thanks for your letter. I certainly appreciate what you did in making the trip over to Orrville, and I enclose a check to help defray the expense involved, - car rental, gas, etc. Lucite and I were quite close, - only four days difference in our ages.

I am glad the Lambert Book Fund is doing a bit better. Lucite and Charles had both sent in good contributions, and it now seems possible that we might reach $5,000, the income from which might make a difference over the years. I sent in a little more in memory of Lucite.

I think I wrote to you about Mama's birthday. It was quite a
