My Darling Joseph:
Your letter was rec'd this morning. It was at the office Mon. evening but I did not think of you writing
from Dunkirk so did not go to the office
Mon. evening.

I hardly need to say that I was glad and thankful that you
had a safe journey thus far, and as I have heard nothing I trust you

landed at Hda safe
and sound, and hope
you are enjoying school
as usual.

I am enjoying school
unusually well, this week.

Of course I feel lonely after living with such a charming being for one day, and then be compelled to utter that saddest of all words
"Good-bye". But after such an inspiration I can study with much
more ease and pleasure.

Tra is improving very slowly, does not seem much better, than when you were here, only he eats more.

I am sorry I forgot to show you that Bible-study outline. It is Steele's. I will ask Ara more about it
in the morning.

Father came home yesterday. He seemed greatly surprised when I told him of my quest.
Carrie says it is quite nice for you
to have business in Columbus. I think
I was mistaken about that Y. M. C. A. Pres. conference.
I think it is the Y. W. C. A.
state convention, and will be held at Muskingum ~~to~~ College.

The fair began today
and we can hardly see
out for the dust.

I have a "trade, last"
for you. One of the girls ~~in~~ here said you looked like Prof. Scott. and that is what I have always thought.
Praying for God's care
over you, I must say
good night.

Your true one
Bertha Lambert.

Thurs. Morning - That bible-outline contains a year's work prophesied included. I have joined a bible class. Our study this time will be "Work of the Holy Spirit." I think that is better this morning. Bertha
