

Westerville O., Mch. 12. '96.
Mr. J. D. Harris!
Ada O.

My Dear Joe: - I will see if I can write you
a business letter.
However I may possibly mix some friendship
hints between the lines.
Ira has been telling me of a Grecian play that was given at Ada about Dec. '93. The title of the play was "Pygmalion and Galatea"

Mrs. McCoppin and Prof. Wright were two of the characters. As you have not much to do I am going to ask you to see if you can get a copy of the play
from one of them, and if you can not do that, find out where we can ~~procure~~ the play.
We want to give it
during commencement
if it is suitable.

I think you have to perform all the favors but possibly I can do something for you
some time.

Things are passing about as usual, plenty of work and some cold weather.

A letter from Adva today states that G. L. Hanson has gone to the Pen.

I do not like to have Athens Co. people come to our Capitol in that way.

While sitting in bed
today I thought of a sentence in your letter and it almost frightened me for I think you have misunderstood me.
But I will say no more
this time. I may say more next time.

I can hardly wait - those ~~long~~ ^{two long} ~~two~~ weeks but - there is no way but to live through it.

This is society evening
so Good bye

Lovingly
Bertha Lambert.
