Dear Joe: - Your
very welcome letter just reid and read through twice already. It found me still trying to cool myself.
I was relieved to know that you got through all right, and pleased to know that you enjoyed your visit so well although I can not see where the
"royal entertainment"
came in. But I must say I enjoyed it immensely
ly

Sat. was quite a warm day for Ex. work but I did not feel very tired until I arrived at home. I did not try to get through for the street car. I finished my work about 4 o'clock, then did some shopping and came home on the six train.

I slept about ten hours Sat. night and arose feeling pretty well over my night's sleep.

Sun. I attended S. S. & preaching in the forenoon and in the afternoon listened to Miss Proendyke speak to the Voluntary Band. What power in her words, they seem to come from the very depths of her heart. On Sun. evening I attended Children's Day services.

I can not see where you have found any time to get lonesome.

I saw the notice in the Herald this morning and thought it looked quite nice. The people here have it published also. Carrie's "joint" came over Sun. (he lives about eight miles from here)

About the first thing he said was, that he heard father & mother were both away and you had been here.

It was remarked by one of the girls ^{in town} this morning, that she thought it a little doubtful about me being in school next year. I wonder what people take me for any how.

I guess it is the nature of people to be interested in other people's affairs.
But I hope to live to prove to them that I am not what they take me to be.

Tues. Morning—

I have spent all the
morning in society
work, practicing with
the glee club, selling
tickets for the Langnet etc.

and just think, I have to give a toast at the banquet, and because
my "friend" is not here
I will have to take one of my brothers.

Carrie, thanks you
for your remembrance
of her, but she says
that she thought she was putting up that
lunch for me, and
was not trying to fix
it up in style.
How about it?

That ice-cream was good but would have been lots better, if you had been there.

We rec'd word, that Mother got through all right on Fri. Three of her brothers from, the west were, there & one sister from Pa.

With your letter I
rec'd one from my friend Miss Adams, she will be here Thu. if nothing prevents. Her Mother will bring her over
in the buggy.

Ira returned home
yesterday about noon
having enjoyed a
lovely trip.

If I were not busy
I do not know how I would put in the time, the girls say I do not seem like I

did a few days ago.
I will surely not care
how soon you make
another visit like that.
I hope it did not
throw you back much
in your work.

I only wish I might fan you but I fear
you would not study
much if I were there
so I think it best to remain here.

Do not study too hard
this warm weather.

No more this time.

Your own true one
Bertha Lambert.
