

- Miss Green -

Dear Dick:

Just thought I'd write and reassure you
that the trains
are getting through to Syracuse, but also to say that you will not see such flowers as there in

bloom over here. Better wear your boots - Certainly your scarf,
gloves, woolies
etc. Perhaps - do come we are all anxious to have you, but do stay a while.
we want to ar-
range a musical evening -

Could you stay long enough for such shenanigans?

Mrs. Stacey writes of Louis Nelson. Wow! These are not easy to live with,
but millions do — so
sorry it happened to her.
I've just finished a long letter to Aletta. Hope this will not cloud their Christmas too much.

Jian is fine - he's racing from pillow to post now.
Is busy making quick changes from his Satta semit to his pole = never a dull moment but they're all happy ones.

I'm not going to wish you a merry Christmas hope to give you a kiss instead!

Do drop a note about you visit here so I can set a party date.

With love to you from
Jan &
Corbin

A Lillian Crow
Floral Note
