

If only I could be there to help.

It makes me feel so bad to know that you're going through a difficult time,
while I sit here, helpless,
so far away.

But I'm thinking of you all the time.

And I hope you can sense my support.

And I hope you can feel my positive energy.

And I hope you know how very much I care.

Dear Paul,

I wish I
were closer geographically but I can't be any closer in my thoughts.
I know there is nothing I can do to eradicate your problems but don't ever hesitate to call
and don't apologize
ever for asking me to listen. I know I live a hectic life but I always have time

to be a sound board
for those I love,

I just wish

I could do more.

I would never take sides in a situation but this time I have to put

my sympathies to you,

I know the children
are much happier
now when they are

with you, I know Cathy is going thru
a very difficult time.

It's not easy to know
you may very well

die soon, but that's all the more reason
she doesn't need
a cold, un sensitive person like Herb to destroy her relationships
- her children. I trust all will be resolved soon to the best interest of two of the greatest kids I've ever known.

Don't hesitate to call. My thoughts are with you. Nancy feels the children should be to you now but says you could never win a custody battle so it would
- here to be an agreeable arrangement. Talk to you soon.
Love Helen
