Dear Richard; just a few lines this morning, all well as usual. Glad to get your card but sorry to learn of your delay on traction. Think you were very fortunate to escape with no injuries.

Am getting ready for Otterbein Lovers tonite. Mrs. Ward Mrs. Comfort & Miss Niswonger help entertain. We are planning for at least thirty. I went down town yesterday & bought some more cups & saucers & plates etc. I want to have a dinner for the faculty & wives soon.

This is such a wonderful weather - I do hope you will get out all you can. Like down & see Mrs. Adams & Otterbein some evening & glen to see Hannah. Wish you were here to help me tonite.

Had an Italian Japan from Dan & Sa & handed it to my vegitable man to read and translate it with a wide upward flourish

He declined it off in Italian & then said. "It say somebody play, somebody sing" I suppose that is a good example of most translations

A fine big angora cat came to one of the houses near here. They cannot keep it because they have a bird. If they do not find the owner I may decide to adopt it.

Write often - I sent your clothes.

Love Mother
