

Winstville, O. Sept 7. 1896

Mrs J. H. Harris

Waverly, O.

My Darling Joe: Your letter just recd. I will steal a few moments from Prof. Gritner to talk with you. I am well and happy and enjoying my school work. John's left this morning and now my work can be more systematic. I believe I told you that Myrtle-Evans & Mrs. Minchall are married and will sail to Africa Oct. 18. They are here and seem as happy as can be. We give them a reception tonight.

Another one of our girls, Miss Custer, has married last evening. We will not have a Gleis left if they keep on. But who is to blame? The men of course. I am very glad you have turned your course toward the north, and I hope you will bring your trunk,
prepared to stay the year.
Ara has entered school
and so will be at home this year. I am afraid we will stand a poor show the way Carrie and Fred are going now (two nights in a week) and Elsie brings that little African in once in a while.

But I think we are able to stand up for our rights.

I must close now as I have a Greek lesson to prepare before noon
but I am still true in heart if I am not in writing, and my prayer is that we may be kept for the Master's
use. Your true one,
Bertha Lambut
