That I will never use intoxicating liquor that I will do all in my power to help to overthrow this great curse. Why? because it is the worst enemy that Christianity has to contend with, because it destroys our youth dragging sixty thousand to ruin annually. because it destroys our intellectual qualities it robs our country of thousands of men that should be used to protect our poor and and advance the cause of Christ

In leisure moments cast a look Upon the pages of this book;
 When absent friends thy thoughts Think of the one who fills this page.

Count that day lost whose low descending sun views from thy hand no worthy action done.

My soul ask what thou wilt I have and not be too bold Since for thy sake the blood was ^{spilt}
 What else can I withhold Beyond our utmost wants His love and power can bless A trusting soul he always ^{grants}
 More than they can express.

Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

[Thou art,
 Think not, though distant thou Thou canst forgotten be; hear While memory lives within my I will remember thee.

Go forth thou little volume,
 I leave thee to thy fate;
 To love and friendship truly Thy leaves I dedicate.

May we do our whole duty and trust to Infinite wisdom for the consequences.

Mine be the reverent listening ^{close}
 That waits all day on thee
 With the service of a watchful ^{man} Which none else can see The faith that in a hidden way
 No other eye may know Finds all its daily work prepared And loves to have it so.

When a sudden sorrow Comes like clouds and night
 Wait for God's tomorrow
 All will then be bright Only wait and trust Him Just a little while After evening tears drops Shall come the morning star.

He who would climb fane's dizzy steep Must watch and toil while others sleep.

Economy is the household mint,
 Time and tide wait for no man,

Knowledge is modest cautious and pure Ignorance boastful conceited and sure

As a tree falls so shall he lie
As a man lives so shall he die.

Hours are golden links, God's tokens Reaching heaven; but one by one Take them, lest the chain be broken Ere thy pilgrimage is done.

"He builds too low who builds below the skies..."

Not the world with all its treasure Can our glowing hope fulfill;
Not the best we can accomplish Worketh half the good we will;
Human love its largest granting Only leaves us craving still.

The years write their records on human hearts, as do they do on trees, in hidden, inner circles of growth which no eye can see.

Oh! when our sun is setting may we glide.

Like Summer evening, down the golden tide;
And leave behind us, as we pass away,
Sweet starry twilight round our sleeping clay!

It is not death to die
To leave this weary road
And with the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God

"When time which steals our ^{years} Shall steal our pleasures too,
The memory of the past will stay
And half our joy renew."

Love, Hope, and Joy, fair pleasures smiling train Hate, Fear and Grief the family of pain?

Though the road be rough and dreary
 And the end far out of sight Travel on and do your duty Trust in God and do the right.

May joy and peace your steps attend

Your hope be always bright May sunshine shade your destiny
 And cares weigh on you light.

Choose not a friend of men outward ^{show}
 The feather floats the pearl lies low.
 May angels twine a wreath for thee
 And twine it with the Lilies three Faith, Hope, and Charity.

Rest not till thou canst kneel low at the cross. And feel in Heavens pure holy light. Thy heart is right.

one score of years passed away has that time been spent I am compelled to say with shame that the greater part of it has been spent in folly I can look forward to the future, Act in the present & regret the past.

What I hope now is that I may make a high aim in life and work, inward with untiring energy to the sought goals ever keeping my master in view as a guide to my erring feet. realizing that if I put my whole trust and confidence in Him all will be well.
