Dear Paul,

Enclosed are some more pictures of from the wedding of Abby & P.J. Been meaning to call you at night to tell you I did speak to Midge & she did see Elton John & I must say she was quite composed in talking about it - she had boy seats & she said he was wonderful. She sounds great. -

Emily starts school Tues the 5th. & Thank goodness. She is so bored but this week she started Karate. She going to take that instead of gymnastics this time & see how it works out. It's more convenient for Nancy and Emily likes it. Also it may build more ^{self} confidence

+ discipline + these days it doesn't hurt a girl to be able to defend herself. I'm convinced there are more crazies out there than locked up. -

How are things going with you? I hope this computer work can develop into a career. I wonder if things will open up a little after election? Only time will tell, I guess.

Did you hear anything from the woman where P.D. got hurt?

Well guess I'll cut this off now. I'll probably call you over the weekend. Take Care.

Love
Kelen
