

Nov. 9, 1974

afternoon visit with Aunt John Wayne

Among items of conversation:

Aunt Hannah, John's mother was married about 1890 (Grace Selby said it was her first wedding to attend) his father was a Presbyterian minister.

1. Horace Lambert was his eldest brother B. about '91

He had Ford agency in ~~Westerville~~ and John, as a young man, used to be sent in to Columbus to drive out new Fords - after hard cranking them

2. Mary Helen Wayne was next in family B. about '94

* she married Walter Roush while they were both students at Otterbein C. Later he attended seminary & was a minister - B. about 196 (died Jan '75)

3. Dwight C. Wayne - He ~~was~~ only one still living - and is in Calif (retired)

4. Daniel Ira B. about '98 - He became chief patent attorney for Eastman Kodak and died in Rochester

5. John B. about 10 days ~~after~~ after his father died in Nov 1900 -

Family moved back to Westerville after death of father. Grandfather Lambert arranged to have a good house built for them, left to his Aunt Hannah raised the 5 children with Grandfather Lambert really a father to them all. Aunt Hannah kept a cow or so, had good gardens and worked some at various things doing fine penmanship, inscribing calling cards. etc * (over) all went to Otterbein

John spoke of the early death of his sister Helen about 1918. His brother Dan was a Lt. during World War I but John was a little too young to go.

They mentioned two daughters of Dwight Wayne: Henrietta (Mrs. Bruce Hobbs, Pt. Huron Mich teacher)
Jean Wayne Fulton, Mount Vernon, Ohio

also two sons of ~~Dan~~ Dan I Wayne:

(brother) Dan Wayne in San Rafael, Calif.

John Wayne in Fairport, N.Y.

(his "boyhood sweetheart")

John & Anne ^{Wilson} were married in 1923 and went to Chicago immediately. He was doing work in Y M C A and together they worked in a church settlement house. Later he got into Bible school and then university of Chicago for, I think, a divinity degree and an M.A. By early depression years they were in a church near Peoria - Bldg burned and they had very hard time living on so little and trying to rebuild. Had another church or so in Illinois and also was a district official for relief, CWA, FERA & WPA in a 13-county district of Ill. Later was in a church at St Joseph Mo. and was at Jefferson City & Kirkwood (St Louis) as a state council of churches secretary.

From that he was brought to Wash. to work with Archer on PAOUFS 2+5. Was at Foundry church in D.C. for a while and edits the paper still "Civic Forum" to propagandize against alcohol & drugs.

There children are

Betty (Mrs David Vequist, Pittsfield, Kan)
& Robert in Photography Monterey Park, Calif

From mother's letter of July 24, 1947

one # "uncle Ira Lambert died about May 27 giving a wonderful testimony, in his last earthly moments, of the living presence of Jesus and his radiant joy in meeting him. He was 77 and very active until the last few weeks. He held four degrees A.B.; M.A.; Ph.D. and D.D. When he obtained the last one, I said, 'O, uncle Ira, you must know about all there is to be known'. Grace he answered humbly, 'I've just begun' to find out how much there is to learn'. He had two daughters, Naomi and Ruth, but I do not know them. The latter married an orchard man, Dickerson, near Dresden, Ohio."
