

Chauncey, O., July 10 1897

My dear Ruth

To R. C. M. HASTINGS, Dr.

--- DEALER IN ---

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

Your letter just rec'd this
a. m. I will have no chance to write until tomorrow which would be too late to reach you. I quit work long enough to write this.
Just use your own judgment about your note. I cannot make much today as I have a felon on next to little finger on right hand. Suppose I will have to quit entirely. Do not worry, all is well.
I will speak at union chapel tomorrow and may go home Monday if this does not get better.
Will write again as soon as I hear from you. Your letter was a sweet message. I dare not write longer as I am owing a little note for C. M. I beg pardon for this little note, but you prefer this to nothing of course. You may address me at Atchey, at the counter with lots of people looking on. Your love J. W. Davis

Mr. Wilbur A. Hardinger.
