

Westerville, O., June 15. '76.

Mr. J. H. Harris,

Marion, O.

My dear Joe:—I was very glad to receive your inspiring letter today.
As usual D. & I carried it an hour or two.

I felt somewhat anxious to hear from you for I hardly knew where you were and feared you did not get my letters last week.

I am taking life comparatively easy at home with Mother. I find plenty to do sewing, keeping figures etc; but I have hardly thought of books since school closing.

Butterberr started away this afternoon, but like some other people who do not want to leave, he missed the train at Columbus and came back.
He thinks he will make one more attempt tomorrow.
Yesterday I went down in the country with Carrie and an "Old Bachelor" brought me home in a fine buggy. His name was Joe but it was not my Joe, although I wished many times that it were.

I still think I will commence your those Bible studies. The more studies I have the better I like them. I expect to try them at least and if I succeed reasonably well

I will not take up the music class again as it would keep me at Ibriia longer than I feel like I can stay.

I am glad to know you are succeeding so nicely with your work, and hope you may continue the rest of the summer.

Everything here seems very quiet, the Dayton
of the students seem glad to know that most of them will never be back of year. Minette College would not suit your needs, you could take dancing lessons.
I assure you it would be very pleasant to
