

Your letter just recd. I have also learned that the 12.10 train w/ the last fire and close not a safe hope
as I will look for you on the 3.30
on 3.30 train. Best

Westerville, Ohio, Dec. 25. '94

Mr. J. H. Harris,
Ada Ohio.

Dear Friend: - A happy
Christmas, to you, this morning.

This morning finds me at home once more.

We landed here last night
about six o'clock. Ada, Glen and Otis came with me or rather, I came with them.

Our train was late, to Columbus
which made us about two
hrs. later getting out to Westerville
than we would have been!

There has been a complete change in the trains on this road. You can come up from Col.
at 12-10, 3-30 & 5-30 P. M.
I presume you can make the 3.30

train all right if not, the 12-10.

I arrived in time, to attend part of a Christmas entertainment last evening, where I saw a few of the old students.

I can hardly make it seem like home in the new house I saw Leonard at Skirron last Sun.

Everything looks natural except our home, but I feel rather mossy-footed.

I will write no more at present hoping to see you in the near future.

If you get this in time to drop a line and tell what time you will get to Columbus so we will know what train you will come on, I will be obliged, if not it is all right.

Some of us will meet you at the train.

As Ever, Your friend
Luthe
