

Piketon, O.
1 P.M. Sep. 10, 1896.

Miss Lambert,

Wesleyville, Ohio

My Darling Bertha: Here
I am again on the move. I left Patemonth 10:28 this A.M.
Have met the pastor of my church. Did not get to show the Study Monday as the city was crazy on account of Labor Day. I sold 16 Tues. & Wed. and so thus far today. Will go to Waverly as soon as through here.

So if it is convenient for you to write soon I must hear from you. I believe you may send a letter to Waverly, please do. This is a small place and I shall leave here doubtless sometime tomorrow.
I know you are busy, but half dozen lines will beat none.

If I go toward you every day as far as today I will soon reach you. I shall do the best I can and will be as patient as possible and will love you with all my might.

Pardon me "Dear" for not writing more but I am in P. O. which is not a convenient place to write.

Hoping to hear from you soon I remain, your devoted Lover,
J. H. Harris.

118

Miss Bertha E. Lambert, Westerville,
Ohio.
"Franklin Co."