

Mi.

20. Started back "home" at 1:40 P.M. After arrival in Portsm. We took picture of place where Theodore was born. Then we were escorted through the Selby Shoe Factory about closing time. (We had to hurry) There was a heavy shower in the afternoon. We ate supper with George Morgan a member of the Nauvoo Church. Rev. Sweazy is doing wonderful work at that church (the S.S. attendance last Sunday was 539!) The view from Nauvoo is marvelous. In the morning Papa and I climbed "Sugar Loaf," a mountain in Nauvoo. After that Sweazy took us up town, had a tire fixed and then took us
- 34 to Ironton. It's some place. We went out on the Ironton bridge and could see for miles.
2. Had a picnic supper and stayed over night after we had gone

30 with Rev. Plummer for a meeting.

In the morning we took a car for Coal Grove where we took the ferry for Ashland where we saw the "Charles R. Wilson," a river steam-boat, it was Keen.

We then went by traction from 30 Ashland, through Kenova, (the tri-city) to Huntington. We then took another car to Guyandotte then by ferry to Proctorville, where we were met and taken to the home of Mr. Ellis on Crown City charge.

That's where we are now. The apples here are de-licious.

→ We were in 3 states this morning.

1 In the evening we went to Quarter with Mr. Ellis after an interesting afternoon. Mrs. Ellis fixed some wonderful pickles and I "tanked ed up" on them. after the service 20 Rev. Ray Beegle took us to Mi. Walnut Ridge, where we spent the night. Friday morning I woke up sick as a dog, and then some. Wow — but I was all in! I didn't eat any breakfast. We (Papa, Beegle, and I) went in Beegle's fliiver to Beegle's home near Syracuse.

I didn't eat ~~and~~ dinner and lay down most ~~of~~ the time til 3:30 P.M. We then were taken to Pomeroy where we got a $2.50 room. I think it's the Presidential suite! It's the corner room, 3rd floor of the Remington Hotel. Gosh — I don't know how to act. (1st time I've ever had a room in a hotel).
