Dear Paul, P.J. & Abby,

Hi there! How are all of you? I heard you acquired a cpl of cats!!! Just wanted to let you in on something I'm trying. Annie.... I purchased a kit thru a catalog ("Helen Carter") to teach her to use the toilet! It was only $6, so I figured if it didn't work it was no great loss. Well, I started today & it seems to be working so far. Here's a form that fits over the toilet & you use a little litter (less each day) & some cat-attracting herbs.... after a week, its supposed to work & the form, litter etc. I'll let you know if it works! (Paul - I'm sure if you could patty-train the kids in 1 day, this would be a breeze!)

Everything here is pretty much the same. I did get a new washer today. After 20 yrs, the old washer finally gave out. Haven't seen or heard from Randy, but I guess c school she's pretty busy.

Hope all is well c you guys out there in "Chicagoland." I'll be in touch. Things are probably getting back to normal now.

Take care!

Love you all bunches!
