Miss Lambert, Dec. ; 1895.

Kesterville O.

My Dear Sweet-heart;

Seated at the home desk amid the blessings of home I take this opportunity of telling you that I am having a better time than anybody.

We walked from the church Saturday night through mud and rain etc. I was at Heerings twice yesterday. It was preaching day, but the preacher did not come so they gave the time to me. I gave a short talk last evening to the Y. P. C. U. on Bible studies. I talked Carlos and Charles until 2 o'clock Friday night. The folks at home until 11:30 Sat. night, and father last night until 11:30

I shall call at Jedd's, Eliza's, and Frank's today. No one congratulated me as they did you nor have they said anything to me about it but they are thinking a great deal all the same. I saw Alva and Sams folks but they all seemed to be afraid to say anything concerning your folks. I thought Grace acted a little afraid of me. I presume it will be best to hold our visit next Sat- Monday. If I can reach the morning train I will get to Col before noon Mon Sat.

I wish you were here with me. I think we could have such a nice visit. I hope you are having a nice time. I have not forgotten you dear but keep looking forward to our visit. I suppose Alva will will be with you about the time this reaches you.

As my time is limited and we have a call I must close for this time.

May God watch over my sweetheart until we meet.

Devotedly yours,

J. F. Harris.

Christmas Gift!

Be a good girl.
