

Dayton O.

8:45 - July 30, 1900.

My Dear Bertha

Your letter came to hand this evening and cheered me very much. You are getting along nicely, but this evening my teeth are beginning to howl in earnest. You will pardon me for such a short letter as I can scarcely keep my senses together.

The enclosed time card will give information concerning trains. 4:15 P.M. is a good train, arrives here 6:08. Unless I hear from you further I will meet that train Wed. evening.

Should the weather be stormy and bad you had better wait another day. If you do not see me at once at depot - go to waiting room for a while.

Start in good time so you can rest - at - Col.

I had company for dinner
Sunday. Edward Hase of Norwich,

I will be awaiting the house
now until I see you both.

Well, good-night -
Love to all.

Joe.

P.S. "Set baggage checked."

6 Am. July 31, all O.K.

Be careful in traveling.
