Dedication

To our Mothers and Fathers---whose interests have been in the improvement of our lives---whose love and encouragement have been inspirational---and whose never ending sacrifices have made possible these four years of high school---we respectfully dedicate "The Ranger" of 1957.

Class of "57"

Honour thy father and thy mother:
that thy days may be long upon the land
which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Administration

Congratulations to the Senior Class of 1957.

F. B. Louys
County Superintendent of Schools

George H. Davis
Supervisor Grade 7-8

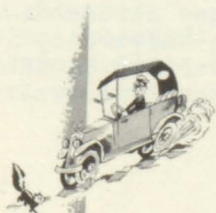

Your school annual is a permanent record of the things that mean the most to you during your school days. The pictures that you find here will always recall old friends and events that you once enjoyed. May you ever cherish this book.

B. D. Coldiron
Superintendent
Johnston School

As sponsor of this Senior Class I wish to express my appreciation for the splendid cooperation that each member has given me. I am proud that you have completed your work for graduation from high school and that you are ready for advance. May future years be as ahppy and profitable for you as the past twelve have been.

CLASS HISTORY, 1957

The Johnston High School Class of 1957 consists of thirteen members. Six have spent all twelve years here in Johnston School, Sally Bacon, Cynthia Rice, Jerry DeJean, Kay Bates, Anthony Roszak and Phyllis Cushman. Seven have enrolled in grades along the way: Carl Patrick in the fifth; Carol MacKendrick, sixth; Anna Mae Kirkwood, eighth; Shirley Blessing, ninth; Evelyn Cole, tenth; and Peter Kile and Jeanne Coldiron in the eleventh.

Original members who have withdrawn are Glenn Burnett, Carolyn Craig, Nancy Pahon, Vivian Wilmouth, Carlon Hines, Gary Bryant and Bob Garlock. Sue Strange, Arlene Fields, Wilbur Morris, Jim Bates, Bob Means, Alfred Miller, Allen Shull. Doris Francis, George Cole, Mary Rosenberger, Lorain Smith, and Leroy Ogilbee have been other classmates.

Our elementary teachers were Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Semler, Mrs. Millikin, Mrs. Sunbury, and Mrs. Price. A high light of elementary days was our sixth grade Christmas play. In the play a school bus broke down with a load of children who were on the way to their Christmas Program. Carolyn Craig played the part of the Grandmother who invited the children into her home while the bus was being repaired. The children rehearsed their program which dramatized scenes of Bethlehem with George Cole as Joseph, Kay Bates as Mary, Nancy Pahon as an angel, Bob Garlock as a wise man, Jerry DeJean as King Herod, and Sally Bacon as narrator.

The teachers during the seventh grade were Miss Keller for homeroom, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Ray, Mr. Richards, Mrs. Viney, and Mrs. Price. Our eighth grade teachers were Mrs. Lewis for homeroom, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Pearce, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Schroedel, Mr. Prokop, Mrs. Price and Mr. Coldiron.

Most of us helped in the Junior High presentation of Charles Dickens's "Christmas Carol" with parts as follows: Sally--Jacob Marley's Ghost, Sue and Vivian--mission girls, Mary, Kay, and Phyllis--guests at the Fezziwig home, Jean--messenger, Anna Mae--Third Christmas Spirit, Carolyn and Carol--sound effects, Anthony and Leroy--stage managers, and others--carol singers.

The climax of Junior High was Eighth Grade Graduation. The boys made the speeches and the girls gave a one act play "Along Came Harriet".

During high school our chief interests have been scholarship, music, school activities, sports, class projects, the school annual, and trips.

Phyllis, Carol, and Peter were elected to the National Honor Society and attended the banquet. Carol, Pete, Carl, Jean, Shirley, Phyllis, and Sally were in the Beta Club. Our Beta members attended the state convention in Akron at the Sheraton Mayflower Hotel.

Most of us have been in chorus. Sally and Jean were in the Sextette, and Jerry has been the most faithful band member. Phyllis had the honor of leading the Student Council for a year. Each fall we have had four people in the court of the Homecoming Queen. Jean Coldiron was elected Queen and Shirley Blessing, the Maid of Honor.

Sally deserves special mention in sports for being basketball score keeper for four years. Carl won a trophy for high percentage of basketball foul shots, and Jean won a trophy for high batting average in softball. Phyllis and Jean were cheerleaders two and three years respectively.

Our biggest class project was our prom for which we used a Hawaiian scene including beach, thatched hut, palm trees, birds, moss, and Hawaiian dolls.

The Junior Play "Crazy But Cute" featured Phyllis, Cynthia, Shirley, Kay, Evelyn, Carl, and Anna Mae.

Several parties stand out in the memories--especially the Junior one at Cynthia's and the Senior one at Mrs. Lewis's.

Carol MacKendrick was editor of the Annual for 1956-1957. Each senior worked on some phase of the year book.

We can't do justice in this space to our entire history, but we really should recall the conservation trips to Mill Creek Park and Pymatuning Reservoir, sight seeing in Pittsburgh, and the Columbus tour to the State Buildings.

We, the Senior Class of Johnston High School, County of Trumbull, and State of Ohio, being of unsound mind and disintegrating memory after four strenuous years, do hereby make, publish, and declare this as our last will and testament.

To our highly esteemed superintendent, Mr. Coldiron, we bequeath the new book of rules that this present class has labored over so faithfully for the past months, said book containing provisions for an increase of holidays to one, bi-weekly, changing the hour for opening of school to nine o'clock, instead of eight-thirty, and closing at one, with two recesses fifty-nine minutes each.

To our beloved sponsor, Mrs. Lewis, we bequeath our undying love and affection, with the request that she give to the next class the same guidance and justice that she so generously meted out to us.

To our dear old school building itself, we leave the peaceful quiet caused by our absence and any apple cores, wads of gum, or crumpled notes we may have left about.

We also give and bequeath to the teachers our very kindest regards and our sincere gratitude for their unfailing kindness and aid.

To the Junior Class we leave our Senior dignity, our excelling wit, our superlative brilliancy, our good looks, our charming manners, our favor with the teachers, our splendid grades and our triumphant exit as the most popular class this school has ever seen. To the same class we, also, bequeath the proud privilege of being Seniors and of always heading the lines and getting the choicest seats and food during lunch.

To our friends, the Sophomore Class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

To the high school infants, the Freshmen, we leave our little book entitled "How to Tell the Teachers," a pamphlet compiled by us after four years of arduous study. You will notice that this is not what to tell the teachers but how. It contains specific information as to which teachers can be bluffed, which are easy and which are hard to please and those who are impossible to please. It tells who your favorite authors must be to stand well with the English Department, which history teacher is especially fond of Napoleon, and what questions to ask to make the science teacher forget the lesson and be of interest.

To Dale Overly, we give Peter Kile's ability to please the girls.

To Jane Coldiron, we bequeath Jerry's ambition, in case she needs it.

To Jimmy Jewett, Anthony Roszak leaves his good behavior and hopes Jimmy enjoys it.

To Mary Laster, we give Carl Patrick's supply of language, which will enable her to talk more and say less than any other human being.

Sally Bacon leaves her gift of gab to Juanita Rice.

Jean Coldiron wills her ability to look innocent when about to be caught doing mischief to Ronnie Cobley.

Phyllis Cushman leaves her short stubby sneezes to accompany Linda Keesecker's hiccups.

To Carol Burr, we bequeath Shirley Blessing's cheerfulness.

Kay Bates wills her one-man attraction to MaryAnn Cushman.

Anna Mae Kirkwood leaves her modesty and bashfulness to Argil Bates.

Carol Ann MacKendrick wills her typing ability to Dale Ross.

Evelyn Cole wills her sophistication to Margie Phillips.

To Sandra Sherwood, we bequeath Cynthia Rice's large correspondence, which keeps the service men happy.

And finally, all notes found in library books are to become the property of the finder, unless said finder be Tom Buchwalter, who is much too young to know about such things.

Having bequeathed all that we possess, have possessed, and expect to possess, we hereby appoint the Johnston teachers as executors of this, our last will and testament. In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this fifth day of February, A. D. 1957.

SIGNED: The Senior Class of 1957

T'was only four short years ago,
In 1953, as you all know,
Our class embarked on its career
By entering its Freshman year.
T'would take too long for us to tell
All the adventures that befell
Our gallant class ere we attained
The lofty heights that now we've gained.
So we shall very briefly relate
Some items of interest for each classmate.

In classes Kay Bates paid attention;
Her good disposition we should also mention.
As class secretary, she rates the best;
When her work was finished, she helped the rest.

Carol MacKendrick likes commercial work;
As editor of the annual she did not shirk.
She has lots of ability to lead;
As President of Beta she did succeed.

Jerry DeJean kept the band in harmony;
His trumpet usually carried the melody.
He is charming and very polite;
Jerry always looks just right.

With Pete we associate the Honor Society;
In it he set an example of propriety.
Peter Kile was a steady Beta Club member,
One that we are proud to remember.

As president, Jeanne Coldiron showed finesse
When business troubles caused distress,
She'd call a meeting; and then
She'd tell us what to do and when.

We think that Evelyn Cole deserves praise
For keeping a job during high school days.
In salesmanship she should excel
Since in this line she has been doing well.

Sally Bacon's presence was very vital
To the success of every music recital;
Her soprano voice sweetly blended
With ours in each concert we attended.

Speaking of Carl Patrick, we admire his wit;
He has an over supply of it.
"Life of the Party" we all name him;
In games he competes with lots of vim.

To Phyllis Cushman we point with pride.
In Student Council she was the guide.
Whenever this organization met,
Unanimous action she could get.

Shirley Blessing, our kind and loyal friend,
Kept accounts accurately to the very end.
Portraying Melba, the maid, she did every task;
All "Pat" and "Cindy" had to do was ask.

Anthony Roszak's a very good sport;
Good things of "Butch" we can report.
A 4-H award he won with his tractor
With skillful driving an important factor.

Cynthia Rice is a red headed beauty;
Who faithfully performs her class duty.
If "Cindy" argued for a special side,
The opposition most certainly died.

Anna Mae Kirkwood typed with precision;
To become a secretary was her decision.
Anna Mae behaved as pupils should;
Her conduct grade was very good.

Here on the platform, side by side
You see our class, aglow with pride.
We are rejoicing for work well done;
We are celebrating the goal we've won.
We are glad that commencement is here,
But the memory of school will remain ever dear;
In later days, we shall fondly recall
Each event--both great and small.

It is the year 1977 and everywhere in Johnston are huge posters reading "Old Home Week". Invitations were sent to all former residents urging them to attend, particularly this evening when a wonderful program of strictly home talent is to be given.

The hour for the great event has arrived and all are eagerly awaiting the performance of their former classmates and friends.

Seated in the audience are many celebrities. As I look about me, I see a number of my old classmates. There is Anthony Roszak, our kind-hearted friend, who became very wealthy through wise investments. His money is paying for much of the Old Home Week expenditures.

The ladies in the front seats are all so stylishly and becomingly dressed. I am told that their beautiful garments were designed by Phyllis Cushman. She is here herself and looks "the glass of fashion and the mold of form."

Seated near her, I see Evelyn Cole, dignified and haughty; I am told that she is the head mistress of a very fashionable girls' school and has never married although she has many suitors.

Greeted by a committee at the door is Dr. Peter Kile, a famous surgeon in a large hospital. If there are any accidents tonight, we feel sure the sufferers will be properly attended to with Peter on the job.

A round of applause greets the man just taking a seat by the window. He is Carl Patrick, and what do you suppose he is? He is the weather man. It was he who furnished the splendid weather for "Old Home Week".

And now the entertainment is to begin. There is a hushed expectancy. The lights in the auditorium fade and the footlights flash on. Before the packed house appears a tall, dignified figure who makes an eloquent address of welcome. Remember our famous debater, Jerry DeJean. He was a lawyer for a time and now is judge of the State Supreme Court. He acts as master of ceremonies, also; and after his excellent speech introduces the performers. First he calls attention to the beautiful flowers and other decorations, saying they were the gift of Anna Mae Kirkwood, now the leading florist of the town. The judge announces that after the entertainment refreshments will be served through the courtesy of Miss Kay Bates, who is proprietor of the delightful "Old Tea Room".

Now the entertainment begins. There is gay music, like circus music and on the darkened stage in the spotlight appears a dainty figure. It's Jean Coldiron who always said she would be a dancer in a circus. The judge says she is the most clever wire dancer in the world.

Next comes a big surprise: Miss Gloriana De Lorme, the famous movie actress; it is our old friend, Sally Ann Bacon, very much changed. She has golden hair and is nicer looking than ever. She seems to have acquired a foreign accent. She asks if we remember the imitations she used to do in study hall when the teacher was called out of the room. And we all remember. It's no surprise to us that she's such a success in pictures. That girl could play anything from "Juliet" to "Mother Goose".

Now the master of ceremonies, Jerry DeJean, rises and reads telegrams of regret from the people who could not attend "Old Home Week".

Regret that I have mysterious news assignment that keeps me from attending "Old Home Week". Am known as Polly Pry-star reporter of the Graphic News. Must uphold my reputation.
Signed: Carol Ann MacKendrick

I've heard that she is so alert that she will interview a criminal while he is committing the crime and get tomorrow's news last week.

Sorry I can't attend "Old Home Week". Just joined the Waves to see the world through a porthole. Shall think of you all in every port as I walk through the slums and see the peculiar people.
Signed: Shirley Blessing

I don't think she meant that quite as it sounds, but merely that she would be homesick in those far-away places and wish to see her friends.

Am private secretary to the head of a huge corporation. My boss was born crazy and had a relapse. Won't give me time off to come to reunion. I shall write all his letters backward for a week.
Signed: Cynthia Mae Rice

That poor man! What she'll do to his correspondence! You remember she never did let anyone impose on her.

At the end of the program the entire audience rises and adjourns for the promised refreshments from Kay's "Old Tea Room".

SENIOR PLAY

AUNT HETTY HITS HER STRIDE

CAST

Standing:

Peter Kile-Jim Gordon, a detective.
 Kay Bates-Bonnie Starr, who loses a book of poems.
 Carol MacKendrick-Dr. Carrie Ditto, a chiropractor.
 Mrs. Lewis-Sponsor and director.
 Sally Bacon-Aunt Hetty, who is fully of "pep" and pepper.
 Jerry DeJean-Foster Frost, a young athlete.
 Shirley Blessing-Melba, a maid of the Tate's.

Sitting:

Phyllis Cushman-Kim Douglas, refined and charming.
 Antaony Roszak-Durward Douglas, a real estate broker.
Douglas Dombie, an athletic coach.
 AnnaMae Kirkwood-Rosaleen Dombie, who arrives unexpectedly.
 Cynthia Rice-Oliva Tate, devoted wife of Professor Tate.

(Not Pictured)

Carl Patrick-Professor Tate, a member of the faculty of Benfield.
 Evelyn Cole-Miss Brewster, a news reporter.

STORY OF THE PLAY

This is the story of the Tate family who is visited by Mrs. Tate's old maid sister Hetty Hoyle. Aunt Hetty, as she is known to all, is an eccentric middle-aged spinster who wears outmoded clothes and who dislikes all males. Mr. & Mrs. Tate shudder when they think of the bad influence the man-hating Aunt Hetty will have on young Thelma who is beginning to act like Hetty. When Aunt Hetty arrives the situation is different. Aunt Hetty is dressed "fit to kill" and she is a changed woman. The Tates' decide that Hetty could be a good influence on Thelma after all. Hetty mistakes Douglas Dombie for her fiance Durward Douglas which causes a great deal of trouble. Everything is straightened out eventually. Dressed in a ridiculous outfit, Aunt Hetty attends a track meet and when the star athlete is taken ill suddenly and can not run, Aunt Hetty insists on taking his place. In the one-mile race she promptly startles everyone by running in the wrong direction. In the end she finally wins the race and also her man.

"STORY OF THE PLAY"

This is a story of Professor Rockby, head of a small college history department, who decides to become an author. To have the proper "atmosphere" in which to write his book, he persuades his family to spend their summer vacation in the warden's home of an abandoned prison. This proves to be very interesting and exciting when they discover the house is haunted with a real ghost. Of course the real ghost is finally captured and turns out to be anything but supernatural. The missing girl is found and a twenty-year-old murder is finally solved.

Chorus

High School

On the evening of December 19, 1956, the Junior and Senior Choruses presented a musical Christmas Program in the school auditorium. The Junior Chorus sang a selection of Christmas Carols. The Senior Chorus sang the cantata "A Star In The Sky" by Bruce Carlton under the direction of Mr. Franklin Van Hove.
