DEDICATION

We the members of the Senior Class of 1956 wish to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Virginia Roush and to Mr. Frank Neal with whom we have happily been associated through our four years of high school. Mrs. Roush was our sponsor in the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades and she also directed our Junior and Senior class plays. Mr. Neal helped us through twelve years of schooling, assisted us with this annual, and was our Senior class sponsor.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Fowler Board of Education presented a bond issue of $199,000., last November, which the voters of the Township approved. This bond issue is to be used for much needed improvements in the school, including a music room, shop, cafeteria, teacher's room, and class rooms.

CLASS MESSAGE

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1956.

Seniors' you are almost at the beginning of a new day, leaving your high school days behind you. You must look into the future with active minds and bodies. Your future contains a vital challenge. You do not know just what the future holds for you but you do know that you will no longer be guided and sheltered as you have been in the past. Seniors' may you always strive to be a credit to this institution which graduated you—Fowler High School.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Her diamond ring wills Dorie,
To Lois Johnson for the glory.

Mary Fran will lend her charm,
On Verna Hunter it will do no harm.

Jackie Carr leaves his intellect
In all the halls for Dickie to collect.

His books of Western, leaves Howard
To Jerry Hake who is no coward.

Danny leaves his Ford of blue
To anyone who wants it. Do you?

Tommy wills his farming knowledge
To Bill Ferry. Maybe he'll go to college.

Carolyns quietness we must confess
Would be a great asset to Jimmy Gress.

Donna Stewart with her twirling strut
Leaves it to Beverly Gray who's in a rut.

Audrey Barker leaves her Kinsman boys
To Carolyn Gail and all her toys.

Alvin leaves his California flame.
To Jack Parkhurst to play the game.

Her opinions so many, leaves Eileen
To Florence Neal who thinks they're so keen.

Jim Griffith leaves his absent days
To Chester Smith who's in a daze.

Lily leaves her eyes of green
To the lower grade hepcats for Halloween.

Lois wills her married life
To Shirley Mac. in all her strife.

A boy to every girl leaves Nan
From whom to collect trinkets whenever they can.

Marjorie wills her one romance
To Peggy Byerly who'd like a chance.

Sammy leaves his personality divine
To anyone who cusses all the time.

Joe leaves his female suggestions
To all the boys to make impressions.

To Sandra, Bill leaves his dictionary
In hopes she'll continue her vocabulary.

Barbie lends her shape and cute smile
On Beverly Haun it'd be worth while.

Cheri leaves her giggle so merry
To a Sophomore boy named Larry.

Her clothes so neat, Florence will offer
On Pat Benning they will prosper.

Katie wills her eyes of brown
To Aurdey to bring Johnny around.

Jim Carr offers his temper and scorn
To the cute Sophomore Buddy Seaborn.

To the Kinsman girls funless joys
The Fowler girls leave the Fowler boys.

Donna lends her pitching arm
To Karen, it may help out in an alarm.

Charles Bradley wills his hair so red
For he thinks Mr. Waters would like it instead.

Her voice and sex appeal leaves Betty
To Mr. Barbarto and his spaghetti.

Charlie Almburg leaves his catman slacks
To that mathematical wizard Mr. Pack.

To our superintendent, Mr. Neal
Who helped to get us over the hill
We leave the books that used to be so new
And who's pages now are very few.

To Mr. Jones, throughout the years
Better students without any fears
We lend them encouragement on January 7
From our Julius Caesar escapade in Grade 11
Though Mr. Jones thought we made a fool of him
We had forgotten Mr. Neal wasn't in.

We offer Mrs. Roush's room more heat
So that she won't have to freeze her poor feet.

Our catman jive to Mrs. Carnes
For a hepcat dialect in her yarns.

To Mrs. Wasik who teaches Home Ec.
We leave our wild tales for her to collect and inspect.

We leave a track team of great speed
To Mr. Vuchak who is greatly in need
We hope they'll come through with flying colors
Instead of black and blue and yellows.

This is the end of our Senior year
Now that we've graduated we have no fear
So let's have a party to show our good cheer
You bring the pretzels and we'll bring
Along the memories of yester-year.

To Mr. Griffin a set of escalators
Instead of each long, high step,
So when you reach the top at last,
You'll have some of your pep.

To Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Suverison,
We leave appetites small,
So their willing helpers can eat it all.

CLASS PROPHECY

As the class of '56 was interviewed in the year of 1970.

We find that Alvin Harris is now the owner of the Strong Aroma Perfume factory located in Fowler.

Audrey Barker, who was once Queen of the Auctions in her day, is now Mr. Neals private secretary.

To our surprise William Wason discovered a new way of saving gas. His motto is "One Pill Will Make Every Hill."

Betty Parkhurst is still attending college where she has just been promoted to a Sophomore after fourteen years of trying.

Nancy Neal is now married and is furnishing lots of music with her own little band. But—no clarinets !!!

Eileen Morris is now Mrs. Robert Mullen. By the way she still drives her blue Henry J. One thing to notice is that the rear fender is fixed and the back seat is just full of little Bobs.

Sammy Marshall has gone a long way in the world of entertainment since '56. He is still playing with the Polka Jets who can be seen on T.V. every week.

Jim Griffith is a traveling salesman for the Fuller Brush Company. But we're sorry to say he still has his '55 Oldsmobile.

Jim Carr is now the owner of Jim's Tavern, located in Fowler Center. Fowler was once a dry town but Jim sure changed that!

It was unfortunate that we were unable to interview Chuck Almburg for he is on tour with the Barnum and Bailey Circus as their head muscle man.

We are glad to see Charles Bradley as a very famous author. He is noted for his weird imagination.

As we looked in on the Crawford ranch in Utah we found that Joe and Beverly are finally married. Joe has finally reformed from drinking and writing crazy poems about Audrey Barker.

Jackie Carr is the bookkeeper for the Strong Aroma Perfume Factory. He better be sure that he fixes the books the way he was taught by Mrs. Roush in high school.

Frank and Lois Castle are getting along fine in their new home at Long Beach. They said they and the two children just love their own private swimming pool.

Donna Kinleyside has taken over the Martha Raye Show and the critics seem to think she can go even further.

Donna Stewart is now the majorette teacher at good old Fowler Hi and has been for the last five years. Her students are the best in the County.

Mary Klavzar is now a pop singer. She was last seen on the Polka Jets show and on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts show.

Doris Davis now goes by the name of Mrs. Richard Murray. They are living in Greenland where they're raising a bunch of little Eskimoes.

Marjorie Phillips and Doug King are still going steady but haven't thought about tying the knot yet. They said they didn't want to rush things.

Barbara Phillips is eagerly looking for the return of her husband who is still a mystery to all of us.

Cheri Crain is now the Private Secretary of the Strong Aroma Perfume Company. One thing she never does is sit on the bosses lap.

We found Lillian McCarthy in Hollywood looking for her knight in shining armor. She didn't find her knight but she did find a Broadway producer. She said the armor would be too hard to keep clean anyway.

Florence Dahmen, while studying nursing in Cleveland, was having a hard time keeping her mind on her work and not on the interns.

Carolyn Callahan and Bob Hill have been married for ten years now. She said her honeymoon has never ended yet.

Howard Sherrett hasn't been heard from for several years. He is now on the moon and his only way of communicating is by smoke signals. He must have run out of matches or forgotten what he was taught as a boy scout.

Danny McCarthy has obtained the late Einsteins position and is advancing still further.

Tommy Schwartz is now the owner of one of the largest farms in Ohio. His cows sure are bringing in the money. By the bags full.

Kathryn Rudge is a famous Brenton Model in New York. She can be seen modeling any of the latest French designs.

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1944 we entered the first grade. Our teacher was Miss Guatschi. There were 25 students: Audrey Barker, Nancy Neal, Mary Frances Klavzar, Kathryn Rudge, Florence Dahmen, Betty Parkhurst, Kathryn Banning, Phyllis Kerns, Nadine Lewis, Donna Lou White, Medina Whitmore, Marlene Yankee, Mildred Smith, Jack Carr, Jim Carr, Tom Schwartz, Charles Almburg, Bill Ferry, Jerry Hake, Jimmy Rabold, and Maurice Wazelle. We do not remember too much about our first year of school, but who could forget Kathryn Rudge sitting on Miss Guatschi's lap?

We entered the second grade, and checking our roll call, we found that eight students had left us. They were Wayne Crain, Kenneth Frazer, Jerry Hake, Maurice Wazelle, Bill Ferry, John Bechtel, Charles Bradley, and Phyllis Kerns. New students were Lois Morrison, Eileen Morris, Jackie Snow, and Jim Kovalak. This year our class was divided. Our teachers were Miss Guatschi and Mrs. McRoberts. Gee, Mary, wasn't Jackie Snow cute?

As we entered the third grade, we found Mary sad; Jackie Snow had moved away. Nadine Lewis, Jim Kovalak, Donna Lou White, Medina Whitmore, and Marlene Yankee also left. New students this year were Danny McCarthy, Lillian McCarthy, Donna Kinleyside, Rita Skinner, Peggy Schmittau, Steve Zolner, and Janet Stein. But Steve Zolner stayed with us only a short time. This was the year that Danny and Lillian told everyone that they were twins. Our teacher was Mrs. McRoberts.

In the fourth grade, Doris Davis, Alvin Harris, Bill Wason, LaDonna McClellan, Donald Woods, Sue Dunlap, Leroy Armstrong, Tommy Sprankle, were the new students. But Sue Dunlap, and Donald Woods stayed only half a year. Rita Skinner also left this year. Our teacher was Mrs. Bequeath.

Cheri Crain was the only new student in our fifth grade. Jim Rabold and Mildred Smith left us. Our class was divided again this year. Our teachers were Mrs. Block and Mrs. McBride. Mrs. Block tried to teach us the 'Virginia Reel', but . . .

In the sixth grade Carolyn Callahan, Marjorie Phillips, and Barbara Phillips came to our school. No students could bear to leave us by now. Our teacher was Mrs. McBride. We thought we had acquired our maximum knowledge as we left grade school.

As we entered the seventh grade, we had brand-new desks to write our names on. This was because we were the first class in the rooms which had been burned in the fire of the previous year. George Ball came, and left this year. LaDonna McClellan also left this year. We began saving money for our Senior trip. Our first project was the magazine sales contest which we won. Our patient sponsor was Mr. Kurkura. After he left for the Army Mr. Brannon took over.

Our eighth grade gave us only one new student, Howard Sherrett. Lewis Hake and Tommy Sprankle left. We won the magazine contest again this year. We were in the same room as last year. Our sponsor was Mrs. Jones. Eileen Morris was going to "leave this place for good", but after two months in Arizona, she came back.

We were now in high school. This was the year we had been waiting for, because our home room was now study hall. Carol Starky was our only new student, and she stayed only a short time. Peggy Schmittau, went to St. Mary's in Warren. Florence Dahmen was absent from school for two months. The girls in our class were initiated by the Hi-Teens in the school gym. Our teachers were; Mr. Jones, Mr. Savka, Mr. Wise, Mr. Prell, Mrs. Harris, and Mrs. Jones.

No new students came to our class in the tenth grade. Kathryn Banning left in the middle of the year. Mrs. Roush was our sponsor again this year. Our teachers were: Miss Kerola, Mrs. Roush, Mrs. Hollingshead, Mrs. Carnes, Mr. Jones, Mr. Wise, and Mr. Prell. Our class and the Spanish class sponsored a Christmas program, directed by Miss Kerola, for the assembly. We didn't make any money, but it was fun. Mr. Wise taught us to spell 'sophomore'.

Five new students came in our Junior year. They were Charles Bradley, Jim Griffith, Joe Crawford, Sam Marshall and Donna Stewart. Janet Stein left in the middle of the year. Our sponsor was again Mrs. Roush. Our teachers were Mrs. DeFede, Mrs. Carnes, Mrs. Roush, Mr. McGintey, Mr. Jones, Mr. Webb, and Miss Mantas.

Our Junior Play was entitled "The Eager Miss Beaver." We had a number of projects which gave us a bank account, at the end of the year, of nearly $1200. In the spring we gave a prom for the Seniors. This was the year that the romance between Donna Stewart and Danny McCarthy began. Nancy Neal and Sam Marshall also fell this year.

In the summer between our Junior and Senior years, the girls in our class spent a week vacation at Lake Erie with Mrs. Carnes and Mrs. DeFede. Mrs. Carnes, don't you think our serenade the last night was truly beautiful? There's something about hitting rocks together at 2 a. m. that is so exciting. By the way Lillian, who were we serenading?

We entered our Senior year in 1955. Since Ed Wessinger had left, our enrollment was 28. This year our sponsor was Mr. Neal. Our teachers were Mr. Jones, Mr. Pack, Mr. Waters, Mr. Neal, Mr. Vuchak, Mrs. Carnes, Mrs. Wasik, Mrs. Roush, and Mr. Barbato.

Our Senior play was in May. The Juniors had a prom in our honor in May also. Lois Morrison decided to change her name to Castle. Doris Davis is thinking of a name change too.

This was the year of pajama parties. Nancy Neal and Florence Dahmen alternated every few weeks. How about that one when the entire class came; plus the Polka Jets!

We hear everyone talking about the college that they want to attend in the fall, but we know they secretly want to get a $100 a-week job, or a marriage license.

Our class is eagerly looking forward to commencement, and the trip to Washington. But although we will be glad to be out of school, we will really miss the wonderful times we have had together.

THE END

CLASS POEM

WHISPERING HOPE

*Honored guests on the Silver Belle,
Seniors at Fowler, Class of '56,
Passing time soon will tell
If our course and life will mix.*

*The waves may be choppy and rough,
We might even ride out a storm;
But if we try valiantly enough,
To keep "Whispering Hope" warm.*

*Our ship will surely come in
And glide to a sheltering dock,
Loaded and filled to the top of each bin
With well-earned world's precious stock.*

*We have held a happy four year berth
On this our high school ship;
We'd exchange for nothing on earth
What we've gained on our educational trip.*

*For you, the underclassmen
A simple word from the wise;
Keep your course straight and true
Because you will soon realize.*

*Your own personal success
Depends on cargo and crew;
May God speed you on your trip,
And the best of luck to you!*

BAND BOOSTERS

In October of this year the Band Boosters Club was organized with the following officers: President, Mrs. Carrie Rudge; Vice President, Mrs. Julia Benning; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Helen Rathburn. Membership is open to anyone interested in promoting the band interests in our school. We now have thirty-six members.

This year we have purchased eight band coats and caps at a cost of $308.75. Also we have bought a Glockenspiel, a conductor's stand, two snare drum stands, a base drum stand, a wood block and holder and a new beater at a cost of $133.16. We also paid the entry fee of $20.00 for our band to participate in the music contest.

We have raised money through a spaghetti supper, serving lunch at a sale, a donkey basketball game, a Christmas raffle, a lamb supper and a bake sale.
