B.E.

ADMINISTRATION

*The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.*

SHAKESPEARE

Our Executive
Head

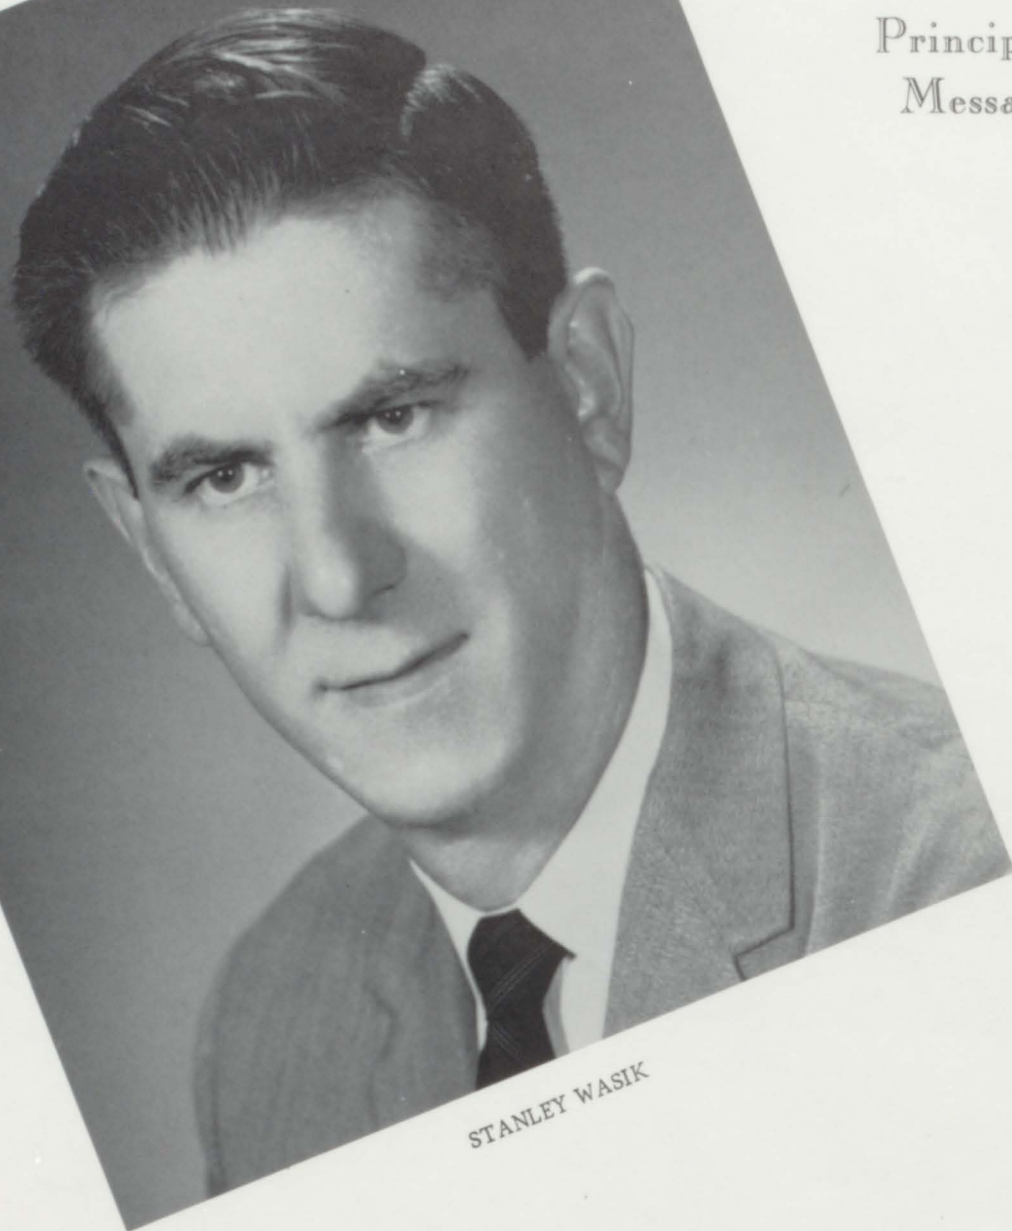

I am happy for the opportunity to extend my best wishes to each member of the Badger High graduating class of 1962.

We hope that in your years ahead you will make the most of your opportunities and will accept your responsibilities well. May each succeeding year find you farther on the road to success.

Leo W. Difford

Our Principal's
Message

STANLEY WASIK

Congratulations to the graduating class of 1962.

You have studied hard to earn a diploma, win a scholarship, get a job, or go to college.

We here at Badger High have enjoyed watching and helping you grow into fine men and women. We have wanted you to discover your personal talents, learn to get along with others, prepare for a future career and become good citizens in our community.

When the curtain is drawn and we see our graduates march out at Commencement, we hope that you take a part of Badger High with you, and pray that good fortune and good health will be with our students wherever their paths may lead.

The background of the entire page is a black and white photograph of a sky filled with large, dramatic, and billowing clouds. The clouds are bright white against a dark, moody sky, creating a high-contrast, atmospheric effect. The clouds appear to be rising or billowing from the bottom of the frame, filling most of the upper and middle sections.
