Kinsman High School

Kinsman, Ohio

We, the Class of '59, dedicate this

Our class book

TO OUR PARENTS, TEACHERS, AND FRIENDS

Who have lived for us

Who have denied themselves for our pleasures,

Who have guided our uncertain steps

Along the path of right and

Who have made possible our happy and successful years at Kinsman.

In Memoriam

JOHN STEWART

One who loves and is loved never dies;

He lives forever in the mind and heart,

And who can say how high the spirit flies

When life's cocoon allows it to depart?

This much we know; The one we loved is free.

Last Will and Testament

of Class of 1959

We, the class of 1959, in the town of Kinsman, the county of Trumbull, and the state of Ohio, being in as good mental condition as usual, do hereby make this, our last will and testament.

FIRST: We give and bequeath to the Junior class our good luck. It made us what we are today, and it should satisfy them.

SECOND: To our good friends, the Sophomore class, we leave our patience. It will be found useful as the only means by which they can endure the Juniors.

THIRD: To the young and unsophisticated 8th grade, we leave a map of the school building, so that they will not get lost and roam about looking for their classrooms. We include with this map, our book entitled, "How to Tell the Teachers," a pamphlet compiled by us after years of arduous study.

It will be noticed that, we have left bequests to the Juniors, Sophomores, and the 8th grade, we have made no mention of the present Freshman class. We have left them nothing, because their self-evaluation will be so great that nothing we could give them would be regarded by them as worthy of their distinction.

FOURTH: To our superintendent we give and bequeath a sense of relief that we have at last been graduated, and a feeling of pride in any great deeds that our future may contain.

FIFTH: We give and bequeath to the teachers our sincere gratitude for their unfailing kindness and aid.

- I, Bob Carkhuff, leave a bottle of Lestoil to next year's paper staff.
- I, Nancy Panak, leave my ability as president to Nikita Krushchev.
- I, Paul Woessner, leave the school unharmed.
- I, Don Davis, leave school --- broken-hearted.
- I, John Fitch, leave my ability to keep my mouth shut to Barbara McElhaney.
- I, Jim McKinley, leave my track ability to Bob Wasik.
- I, Dick Smith, leave the school burning.
- I, Randy Johnston, after twelve years of hard study leave my janitor job for better advancement with Ed Norton, alias Art Carney.
- I, Dorothy Fenn, leave my chattiness to Margaret Knepper.
- I, Ruth Phillis, leave my long eyelashes to anyone who thinks she can get them to work---they never worked for me.
- I, Wilbur Youngblood, leave my attendance record to Jim Huscroft.
- I, Martha Smith, leave my lab apron and all the fun and excitement I had in chemistry class to Sally Haynam.
Always remember to add water to the sodium peroxide first, Sally.
- I, Joyce Morford, leave all my red F's to all those who are interested in getting out of school early.
- I, Sandra Dimaline, leave my natural red hair to Mona Jones.
- I, George Grudowski, leave my ability to keep out of trouble with most of the teachers to Jeff Berry.
- I, John Kistler, leave what ability I have in sports to my brother, Bill - to keep it in the family.
- I, Virgil Fenn, leave on the grounds that I think twelve years of slaving is enough.
- I, Martha Carmichael, leave---taking everything with me but the books.
- I, Gertrude Starling, leave for the second and last time.
- I, Kathleen McMillen, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Banning and my seat in government to Linda McMillen.
- I, Jerry Mott, leave my ability to have good times and to sleep in government to Skip Lauer.
- I, Robert Mauk, leave my track ability to Hank Haynam.
- I, Bill Berry, leave my position in the Post Office to anyone who wants it.
- I, Bill Hecker, leave all my crazy ideas in shop to no one.

Finally, we do hereby name and appoint as the sole executor of this, our last will and testament, our class advisor, Mrs. Hoffman.

In Witness Whereof, we, the CLASS OF 1959, the testator, have set our hand and seal on the nineteenth day of May in the year of 1959.
