CLASS SONG

--- Farewell ---

Tune (Red Wing)

Our schooldays are almost gone, and yet we linger
here;
For sweet each joy that we have known,
Tis hard to part from classmates dear;
The world before us lies, Yet here fond memories
dwell;
With saddened hearts and dewy eyes,
We bid to all a fond farewell.

Farewell Vernon High School, Farewell;
Teachers and Classmates a fond farewell
We bid to all a sweet farewell
And may God bless you each one and all.

Long will our hearts recall each joy in friendship
sweet;
For time can never more destroy,
The memories of our schooldays dear,
Of other scenes and cares, Our lips their stories
tell;
Each heart your tender memory shares,
Teachers and classmates farewell.

CLASS HISTORY

Our journey began one bright morning in September, 1943. As we look back on that first day of school, we recognize 11 of the original members. They were Gene Draa, Danny Hightree, Nola Rasor, Richard Rodgers, Earl Stevens, Louise Sackett, David Steadman, Virginia Tomlinson, Marilyn Wells, George Wells, and Lee Williams. Our first teacher was Miss McMinn, who we now know as Mrs. Karr. Then we became second graders. This year our teacher was Mrs. Hanawalt. We added Don Letcher and Fred Lau to our class. Next we traveled to the third grade. We really learned our math that year, with Mrs. Wall as our teacher. Now we were in the fourth grade. Here we added Bruce Coxson to our class. Our teacher was again Mrs. Wall. Then came the fifth grade. This year we added Jessie Weister and Barbara Dodge to our group. Mrs. Seaholm was our teacher.

Now we were in the sixth grade. The oldest students on the first floor! Again Mrs. Seaholm was our teacher. That year we began our campaign of earning money for our junior and senior year.

At last we were upstairs! Our home room teacher was Mr. Mallett. We soon became accustomed to the changing classes. Then we advanced to the eighth grade. Here Mr. Schettino was our class advisor. This year we added Jerry Todd to our class.

Now we were proud freshmen! The Sophomores initiated us - a night we'll never forget. Our class advisor was Mr. Wasik. And then we were sophomores. We did some initiating of our own that year. Our class advisor was Mr. Rechedy. This year we added two new members, Mary Anne Mortimer and Bob Horodyski to our class.

Then came our junior year. Our class advisor was Mrs. Jewell. We presented our first class play, "Hillbilly Weddin", a roaring success. We entertained the Seniors at the Shenango Inn where we held our Junior-Senior Prom. This year we worked more and more toward saving for our trip.

And finally we reached the last year of our journey. We are Seniors. Our class has 19 members. Our advisor is Mr. Theofilos. We presented our second class play, "Teen-time". We took a trip to Washington D. C.

And now as we graduate 19 strong you will hear of us through the coming years as we each go out to make our own personal history.

CLASS PROPHECY

In 1955 the Seniors of Vernon went out into the world to begin their different careers. Let us now look into the year 1970 and see how successful they have been.

Bruce Coxson former star athlete of Vernon, is now playing basketball with the New York Knickerbockers.

Barbara Dodge, now owner of Times Square Restaurant, has been married to Ronnie Hayes for 10 years and has 11 kids. (TWINS)

Gene Draa, mathematical genius of the Senior Class, is now an architect designing plans for bridges, buildings, etc. for the Warren Engineering Company.

Danny Hightree has opened up a garage and is collecting used parts for his antique 1940 Chevrolet.

Bob Horodyski is now in the Air Force, trying to set speed records in jet planes, instead of in his FORD

Fred Lau has recently been signed to a 5 year contract with MGM Studio in Hollywood, to star in some upcoming movies.

Don Letcher is now competing with Jackie Gleason for the Most Popular Show on Television.

Mary Anne Mortimer is now married and is residing in Florida, where she is managing a home for the aged.

Nola Rasor has opened a Music Studio in Hollywood, California, and is teaching her pupils how to play the piano like Liberace.

Richard Rodgers is now a marriage counselor and is giving advice to the LOVELORN.

Louise Sackett has now been appointed as a missionary to go over into Africa and teach the natives how to become more civilized and also to teach them about the Bible.

David Steadman has now opened a Loan Company in Orangeville and is lending money to, (that's right) Danny Hightree.

Earl Stevens is now assistant-manager of the Meloni Super Market.

Jerry Todd is now a Senator from the state of Ohio, and is still arguing about how much better the Democrats are than the Republicans.

Virginia Tomlinson is now modeling clothes in New York City, for the latest fashion magazine, THE SOPHISTICATED LADY.

Jessie Weister, now Mrs. Kagy has a complete softball team of little Kagy's. (Just for Vernon School)

Connie Wells, new coach of the softball team here at Vernon, has replaced Mr. Mallett, who has recently retired because of old age.

George Wells is now running a Taxi Service between West Street and Vernon.

Lee Williams, successful business woman of Orangeville, has recently opened a factory in California, and is producing among other things JET PROPELLED DOODELY BOOPS.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We the Senior Class of nineteen hundred, fifty-five, of Vernon High School, of the Community of Vernon, Trumbull County, State of Ohio realizing that we must soon depart, do hereby will and bequeath our last will and testament to our most proud successors.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Wasik we will a new class of typists to type out his work.
To Mr. Mallett we will a new and better softball team.
To Mr. Rechedy we will a raise.
To Mr. Whipkey we will quieter study halls.
To Mrs. Wasik we will more time to do her housework.
To Mr. Theofilos we will a new and quieter class.
To Mrs. Heberling we will better English students.
To Mr. Nagy we will more accurate typists.
To Mrs. Logan we will a larger French class.

ARTICLE II

To the Freshmen we will our ability to be Seniors someday.
To the Sophomores we will Mrs. Heberling to be your next homeroom teacher.
To the Juniors we will our ability to make money.

ARTICLE III

Gene Draa wills his ability to do Math to anyone who needs it.
Barbara Dodge leaves her attendance record to Janie Scott.
Bruce Coxson bequeaths his ability in sports to Skip Blair.
Fred Lau wills his way with girls to Larry Gallatin.
Don Letcher leaves his seat in Mr. Wasik's office to Peter Williams.
Robert Horodyski wills his seat in the Chatterbox to Bill Jones.
Danny Hightree wills his shortness to Don Gruver.
Mary Anne Mortimer bequeaths her short blonde hair to Josephine Stackhouse.
Nola Rasor leaves her Liberace piano lessons to Carole Holler.
Richard Rodgers wills his ability to go steady to Clyde Stevens.
Louise Sackett bequeaths her ability to be a missionary to Clara Blair.
David Steadman leaves his fast thinking in basketball to Lyle Draa. g
Earl Stevens wills his money to anyone who wants a new Cadillac Convertible.
Jerry Todd leaves nothing, he figures he might need it someday.
Virginia Tomlinson wills her beloved roller skates to Diane Draa.
Jessie Weister wills her pencil slim skirts to anyone who can wear them.
Connie Wells bequeaths her ability to participate in sports to Nancy Bloss.
George Wells bequeaths his quiet ways to David Loosemore.
Lee Williams wills her extra pounds to Martha Brugler.

CLASS POEM

First, there's Gene Draa
Who seems a little weary
But when he is with girls
They are all a little leary.

Richard Rodgers
Who is next on my list,
Thinks he's a knight
Who has never been KISSED.

Third, there's Jessie Weister
Who never said no,
When Dale asked her to a show.

Next is the kid
Who has the second seat,
Why its Don Letcher
Can't you tell by his FEET.

Though her real name is Virginia,
We sometimes call her Ginny,
But it hurts our feelings
To hear her called SKINNY.

Or take David Steadman
Who someday will have fame,
You can't tell by his actions
But he's really quite tame.

Bruce Coxson
Shy, handsome, and tall,
Doesn't like the girls
But is chased by all.

Mary Anne when
Last seen in the park,
Was said to be
Singing like a lark.

There's always a frown
On the face of Fred Lau,
But when he sees Nancy
It becomes a big SMILE.

To Jerry Todd
At last we have come,
He sees no future in life
Thinks he'll be a bum.

Now most of the time
Connie Wells is quiet,
But when she gets started
It ends in a riot.

Nola Rasor
Is now a big star,
She beats
Liberace by far. (OH BOY)

There's Danny Hightree
Who is quite short, and dark,
When it comes to singing
He sounds like a dog's bark.

Now Earl Stevens
Is bright like a daisy,
But at a class party
You would swear he was crazy.

Bob Horodyski
With his hair light and curly,
Never has or ever will
Be seen in a hurry.

Barbara is engaged
To a very nice boy,
But when the other boys whistle
She jumps for joy.

Next, there's a nice little girl
And her name is Louise Sackett
She sets everyone in a twirl
With all her noisy trumpet racket.

George Wells, who is as quiet
As can be,
Is the best of friend
To you and to me.

After school
Lee Williams plans for a career,
So she says she'll chase the boy's
While she's here.
