Dedication

We, the class of '53, dedicate this yearbook to Helen Hoffman, our class adviser, who has been so kind and helpful to us throughout our years of school. It can be said that every pupil who has met her has gained a special richness in his life.

"I expect to pass through the world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now."

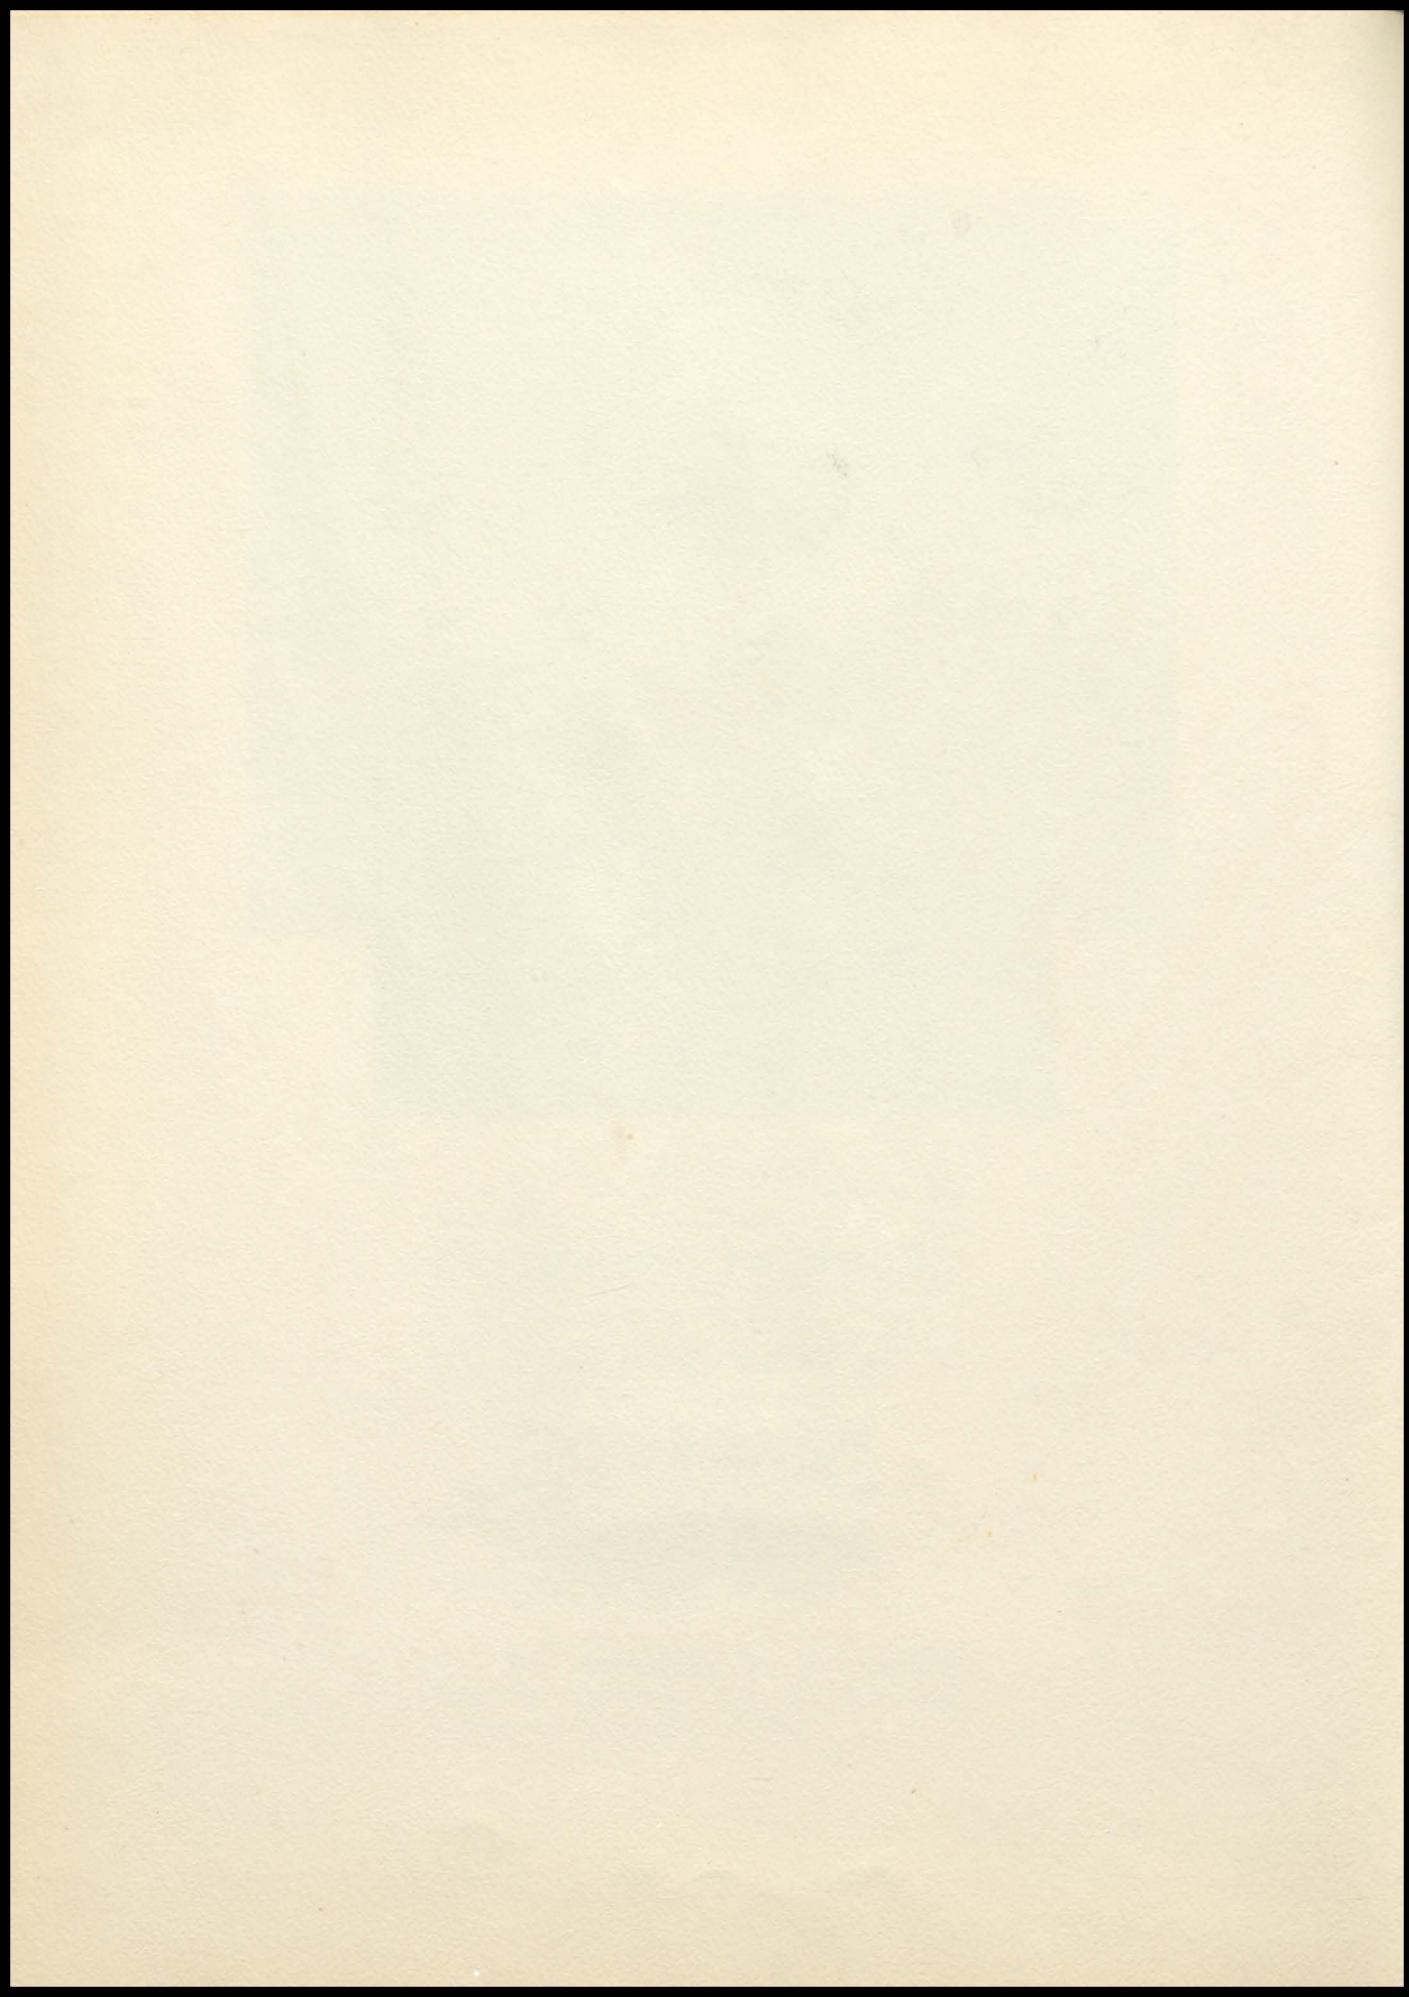

The preceding is a quotation from her notebook that we feel must express her philosophy of life.

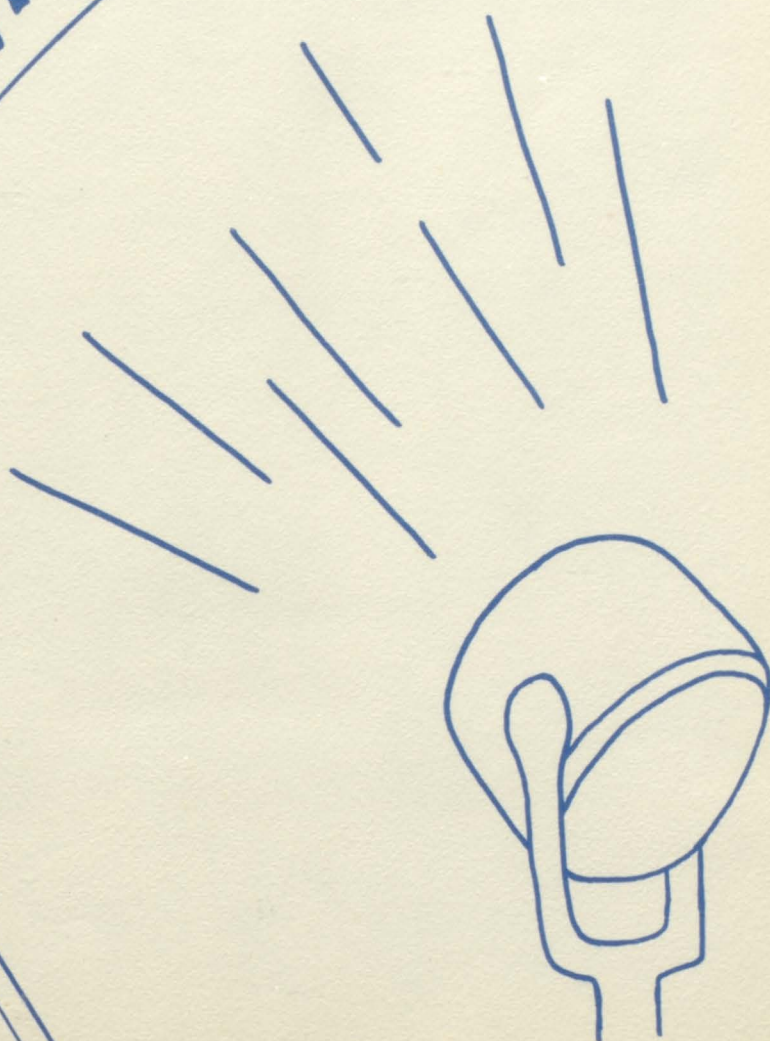

Forrest D. Hall

Book of Memories

As the "Spotlight" focuses
Upon another friend so true,
We find a list of happy times
Made possible by you.
Each day at school seemed better
When we saw your happy smile,
And we learned a lot of living
When we talked with you awhile.

Class History

Ladies and Gentlemen, step up a little closer, I have here for you the Kinsman Class of 1953. This is the most spectacular, marvelous, energetic, ambitious, spontaneous, stupendously brilliant class that had ever been graduated from these "Hallowed Halls". (At this point I would like to insert, that I am a member of this class and may be prejudiced.) However, as all great things must have a beginning, we are no exception. In the year 1941, A. D., we joined the circus company, Kinsman Public School, with a bang. However, the "bang" was soon silenced as our ring mistress, Miss Thompson, began our training. Let me tell you, circus life isn't all fun. To verify this statement, we have only twelve of the original members left, Cornelia, Jack, Betty, Dick, Janet, Gene, Barbara, Reid, Irene, David, Frank and Patty.

After our performance in ring one, we advanced to ring two, for more training. Under the careful direction of Mrs. Sunbury, we managed to continue on to ring three. It was here that another performer joined our troop, Roberta, who added much color (her red hair) to our performances. Our troop then paraded into rings four and five, which were under the capable guidance of Miss Brooks. We didn't gain any permanent members, but put our act into a minor spotlight by taking on the rest of the circus in a hot game of soccer.

We now moved from the main tent into the side shows to let our act mature. During this time, we acquired several new performers, Jim, Bob, Laddie, Patty K., and Ivan. The producer-director of our sixth ring show was again Mrs. Brooks. She put us right to work learning new acts.

During rings seven and eight, we put the final polish on our part in the side show and also got acquainted with our ring masters for the next four years. They were Mr. Boster, Manager, and his assistants, Mr. Banning, Mr. Jones, Mr. Francu, Miss Brown, Miss Fitts and Mrs. Hoffman, who turned out to be our production manager.

Ladies and Gentlemen, gather around closer yet, for I am about to begin unraveling the brightest spots of this yarn. I shall now reveal to you the main tent again, but this time ring nine! We must have thought our act was perfect, for we opened the show with the same "bang" as we'd used for ring one, only to crash once more and find how small and insignificant we still were. However, many of us made strides in perfecting our individual performances. We also added another trooper, Judy.

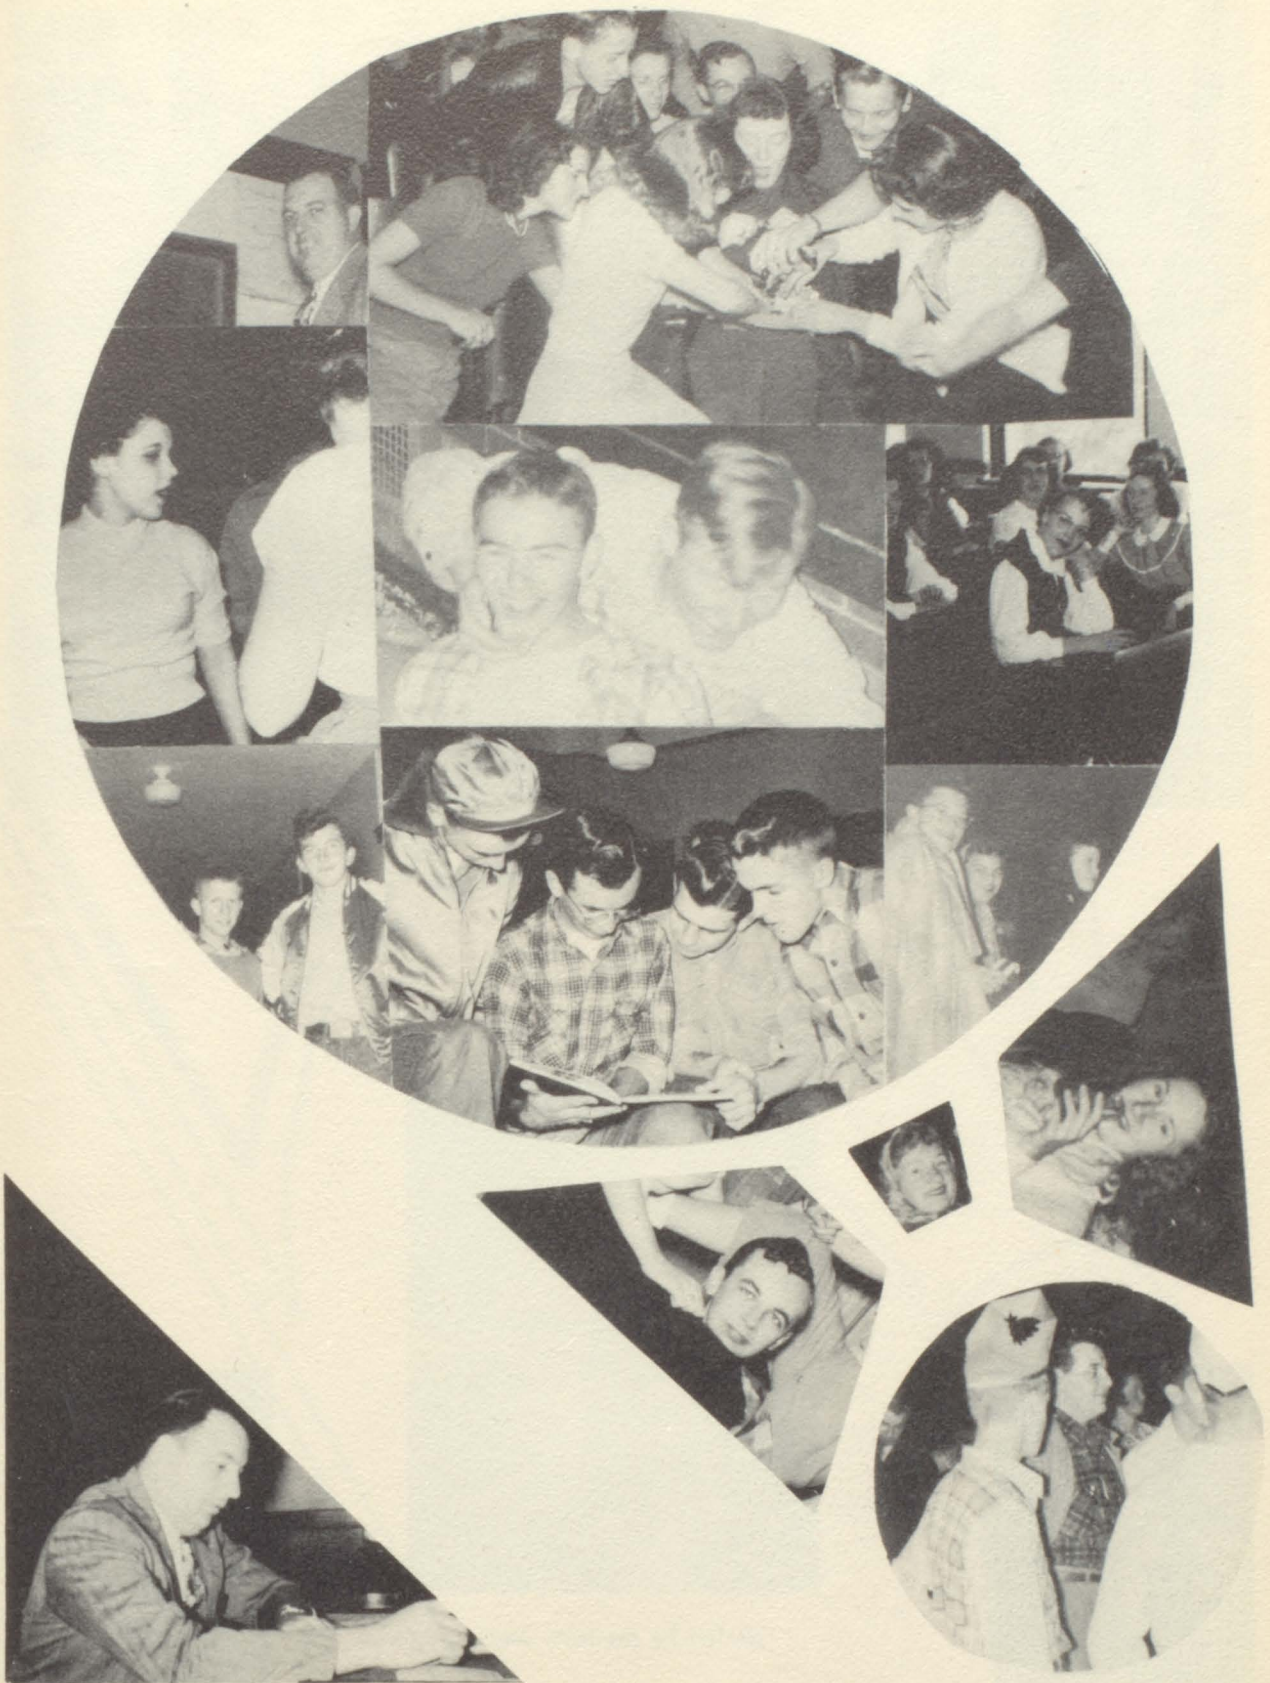

Ring ten! We acquired a new manager, Mr. Titus, after the sudden death of Mr. Boster. Also, our act began to shape-up and we began to fit into the show much better. Some of the rough edges had been clipped off and we were beginning to get a little polish.

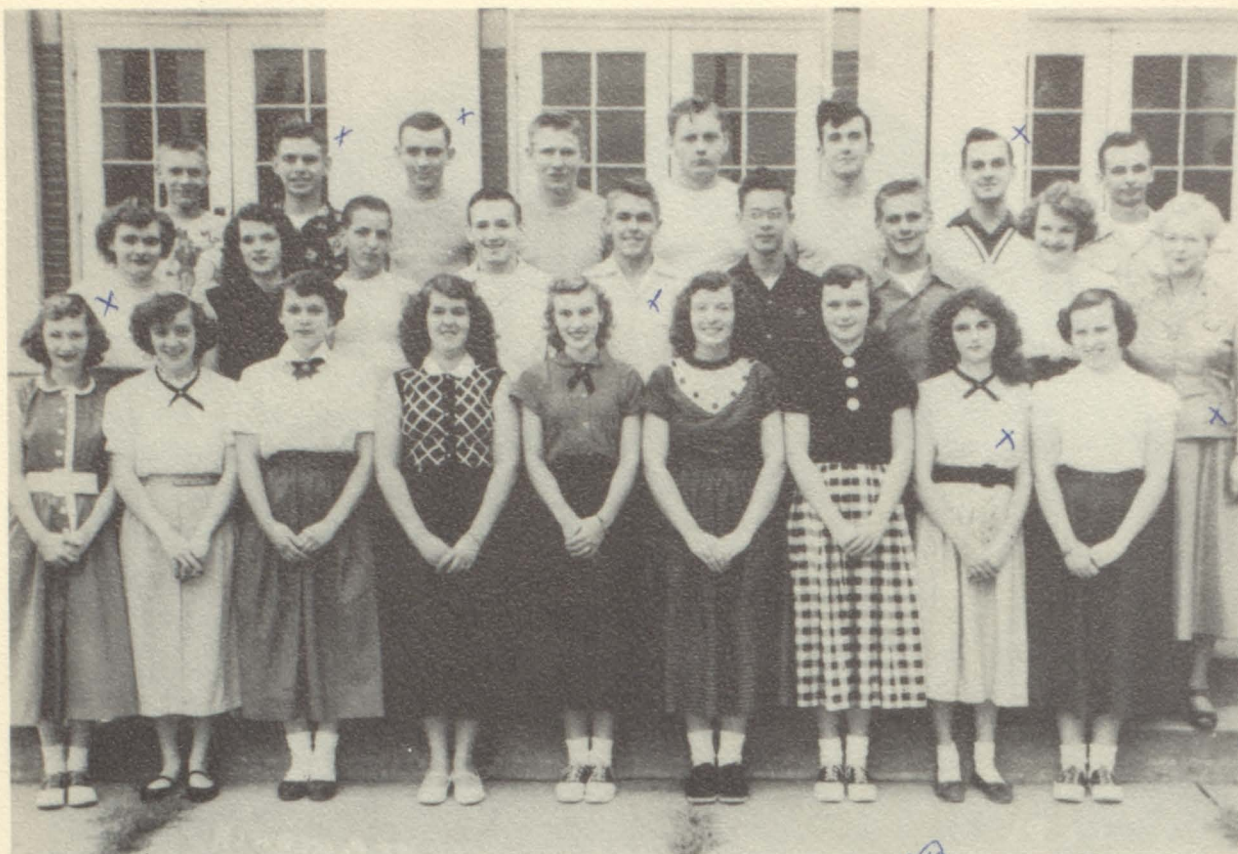

That year we took on a new act, Sheldon. More and more our own stars were contributing to the big acts in the main ring. Ring Eleven! This time we were out to make money. By mingling with the crowd, we tried to sell everything we could lay our hands on, including the ring master's cap. All during our show life, we were practicing for the grand finale. In the final rehearsals, we were joined by Ronnie, Lillian, Kate and Sharlene. Ring twelve, the grand finale!!! We progressed through the eleven other rings to the ring in the center of the big tent. A change in the assistants brought Mrs. Garlock to replace Mr. Jones. The final act to join the production was Leroy. Now we began our last performance and what a success.

Our tumblers, Jack, Dave, Dick, Frank, Laddie, Gene and Jim performed many exciting fetes which kept the audience in suspense, while our acrobats, Roberta and Cornelia, kept this suspense at fever pitch.

The brain teaser, Frank, made everyone take notice, while from the rest of the class we "honored society" with Cornelia, Jack, Roberta, Dave, Ronnie and Jim. The rest of the troupe, Betty, Janet, Barbara, Leroy, Judy, Sheldon, Irene, Bob, the two Pats, Reid, Ivan, Kate, Lillian and Sharlene, after performing in many capacities throughout the act, made the music in "Arizona" ring in the hearts of our audience. The final curtain fell on May 17, and we received curtain calls on May 19 and 21. The circus train pulled out for New York, May 24 and carried with it the entire cast, happy with memories of a twelve ring circus that had given the public the best value possible for their admission fee.

From everyone's viewpoint the Klippers finished one of the most successful seasons in the school's history. We finished runners-up and second only to Bloomfield, who were victorious, 5-4 in the finals.

The Klippers started their highly successful season with a rousing 11-1 victory over Lordstown. They continued to roll with consecutive victories over Farmington, Bazetta and Fowler. In the last game of the season with Hartford, Banning had a no-hitter with two out in the 7th; then, Hartford got a hit over second that spoiled his game. Bazetta was expected to be the tough one and it was, for them; we won, 4-2.

League 3, which is our league, was to meet League 2's representative, Vernon. We had scrimmaged Vernon in a pre-season contest and had little trouble defeating them, but that wasn't a true test as the semi-finals proved. We barely beat Vernon in the 7th, scoring 3 runs in the top of the inning to win, 6-3. Bloomfield was our foe in the finals. The game was a very tight affair--the lead changing hands several times. Going into the last inning the score was tied, but Bloomfield made the best of their part of the inning as Smida hit the first pitch for a home run to win, 5-4.

Klippers Cage Season

The basketball team had a most successful season, winning 14 games and losing 6. Coach John Francu's squad was in a tie for the League III championship when they lost to Fowler. However, the defeat near the end of the season by Bazetta left Kinsman in second place.

Never-the-less, the Klippers were seeded in the T.I.A. Tournament, the first two rounds of which were held in Kinsman with the quarter final, semi-final, and finals held in Howland.

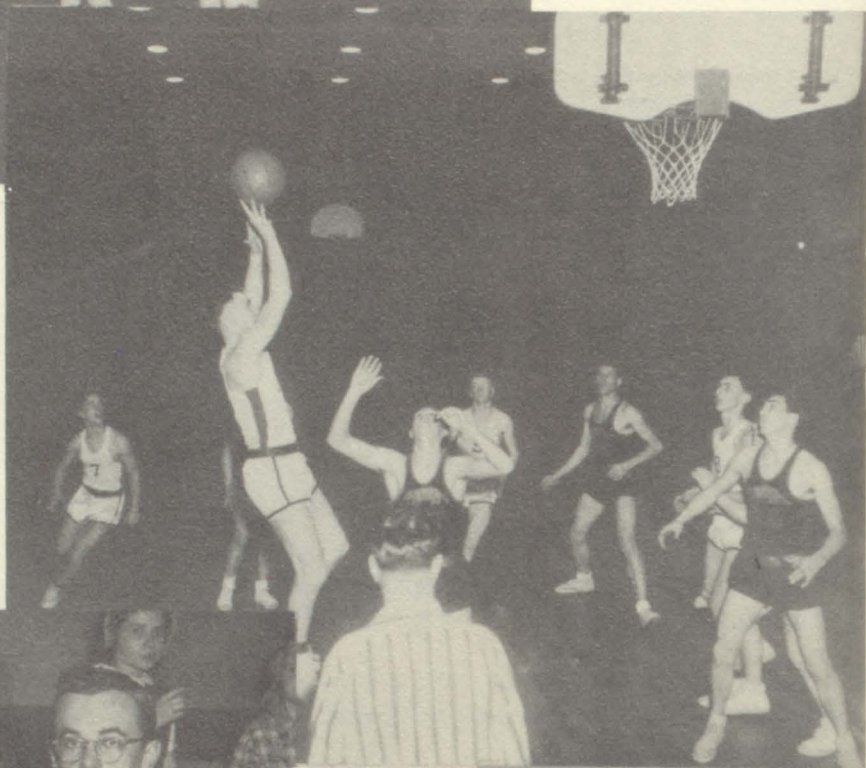

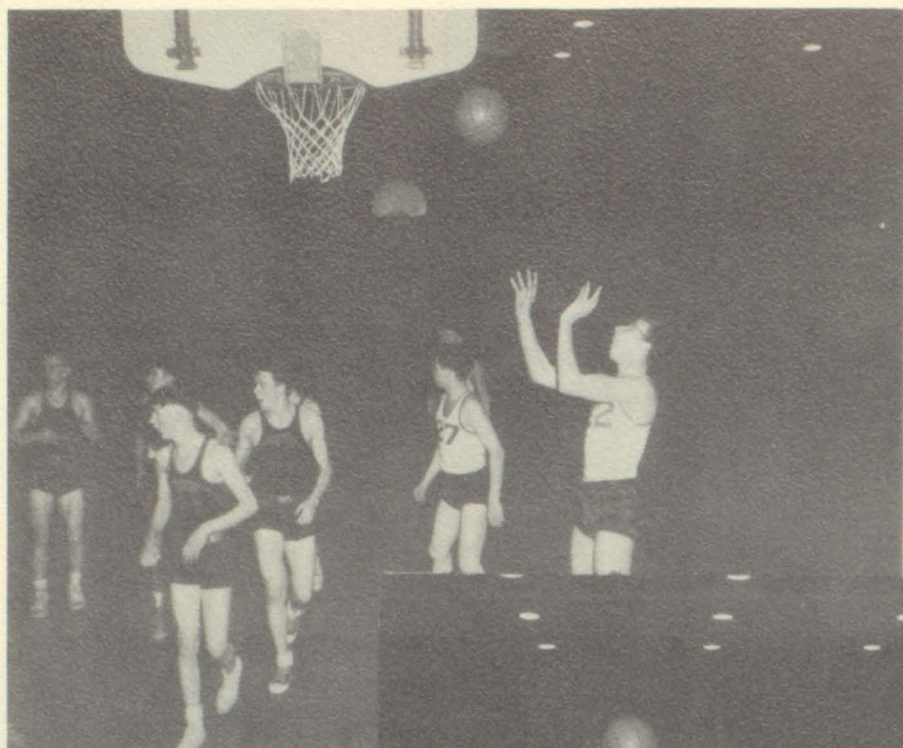

After a tough game with Johnston in the second round, Kinsman came out the victor, 63-50. Their quarter-final opponent was Mineral Ridge. After leading 32-22 at the half, the Klippers found themselves behind 41-37 at the end of the third quarter. They tied Ridge in the closing minutes of play. But excitement made the necessary winning basket an impossibility and the final whistle blew on a 48-48 tie. In the three minutes overtime, Kinsman was on the short end of a 57-54 score.

Bazetta again was our opponent for an important game—the consolation game. The Klippers trailed 35-22 at halftime and were still behind 57-51 in the fourth quarter, but they finally came to life and scored 9 straight points to win 60-57. This victory gained them a berth in the N.E.O. "B" Sectional Tournament at South High Field House in Youngstown against Warren St. Mary's.

After battling for four quarters, the Klippers ended in a tie 55-55. This time they were victorious 61-59. Now we meet Canfield. (Press Deadline).

During the season, the starting line-up was chosen from Jack Banning, Chuck Carmichael, Dick Meredith, Gene Pearce, Jim Porter, and David Mathews.

The first main event of our 1952 school year was the honor of participating in the Trumbull County Chorus. Among the selected members, Kinsman had one of the largest representations in the county. The chorus was under the direction of Dr. Carl Wilhoit of the Fred Waring Organization.

Then came the band contest with Kinsman taking the highest honors in the district and state for the sixth straight year. Throughout the summer, the band played for various concerts.

Moving into our senior year, our first musical program was our Annual Band Concert, which was again very successful.

The chorus and band worked very hard for the District Music Festival, which was held in our own gymnasium. It, too, was largely attended.

The Class of 1953 wishes to express their appreciation for the effort put forth by Mrs. Price and Mr. Sulek in making this a successful year in music.

Chorus of Cowboys, Dudes; Dudines; Mexicans

The sudden death of bachelor Colonel Blair has left the Ride 'em Hard Dude Ranch, in Arizona, temporarily without an owner, due to no will being found among the Colonel's effects. Orphaned Larry Benson, though not of legal status, declares the dying man mentioned making a will.

The Colonel's niece, Lettie Blair, has come to the ranch, because if no will is found; she will inherit the ranch. Lettie is early made aware of the Benson-Guld feud. She also finds out that the Colonel planned to marry her off to Larry. This starts another feud.

The amusing characters on the ranch make for many delightful scenes. Then surprise of all surprises, Cappy brings the will to light. It leaves the undivided estate to Larry and Lettie only if they love and marry without undue outside influence.

Cappy, acting as Cupid, brings the two hearts together, and the story ends happily.

Junior-Senior Prom

The first High School Prom, which took the place of the usual Junior-Senior Banquet, was sponsored by the Class of '53 in honor of the Class of '52, on May 9th, 1952. The guest list included the faculty members, members of both classes and their guests.

Red, white and blue streamers completed the attractive night club setting in the new gym. The girls in their colorful formals and their well-dressed escorts made a delightful picture.

During the evening, everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of the "Dixie-Land Five" and listening to vocal selections by the "Four Kinsmen."

At midnight the balloon drop exploded its contents of multi-colored balloons over the dancers. Then the mothers of the Junior Class served a tasty and beautifully arranged buffet lunch. This pleasantly climaxed an evening long to be remembered.

Mr. Morlock, a fidgety, nervous, grouchy old goat who doesn't like anything but money, won't let his family do anything, always gripes about his pains and aches, feuds with everyone and he won't let daughter, Mary, become engaged to Joe Lanconi because Joe's papa is poor. In short, he's a gripe of the worse sort. So when Joe's papa, Luigi, comes over to plead his son's case, he is practically booted out of the house. Right here the two old fellows start a feud that puts the Hatfield-McCoy fracas to shame. They fuss and fight all over the place. Mr. Morlock, who's known as P. U. to his few friends (that stands for Philip Ulysses), says if Mary weds up with Joe, it'll be over his dead body. So round and round they go. Luigi's always had a bad heart and well, the poor old boy just can't take it. Mr. Morlock unexpectedly conquers his insomnia and falls asleep to DREAM!! AND THEN THE FUN (not for him) BEGINS!!

The Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1953

We, the Senior Class of 1953, of the High School of Kinsman, of the county of Trumbull and State of Ohio; being indisputably of sound and disposing mind and memory and about to pass out of existence; do make public and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by us at any time heretofore made.

First, we bequeath to our superintendent, Robert Titus, all the fear, admiration and respect in which we hold him that he may, when we are gone, distribute said fear, admiration, and respect, impartially among the incoming freshman class in order that they may conduct themselves admirably in his presence, as we have endeavored to do.

To the class of "54", we will and bequeath our high rating of scholarship and continual habits of attention to the teachers.

To the class of "55", we leave our ability to be perfect class-room students, and we pass on our memories to guide and to be guarded by you.

To the class of "56", we pass on future Freshman initiations, hoping you have better success than we did.

Each one of the class members wishes to leave a few of his most prized possessions to you students whom we are leaving behind. Take care of them and use them advantageously as we did.

I, Cornelia Agema, do hereby depart, taking Jim with me, but leaving my office practice to Mary Agnes Hurd.

I, Jack Banning, do hereby pass on to Bob Knepper my sports ability, providing he will concentrate real hard.

I, Betty Barr, hereby pass on my quietness to Hazel Garlock, especially in book-keeping.

I, Janet Clute, hereby will the length of my hair to Greta Eaken, if she'll promise to throw away her scissors.

I, Barbara Eaken, do hereby leave my scorebook to Joyce Lamson. Keep those pencils sharpened, Joyce.

I, Roberta Endsley, do hereby will my first base and cheerleading positions to Margaret Christy, knowing she will do a good job at both.

I, Ronald Hall, do hereby bequeath my natural Toni Curl to Harry Prior.

I, Leroy Hover, do hereby will my beautiful build and bass horn to Dale Kagy.

I, Patricia Knepper, do hereby leave my size 5 ring that I wear on my left hand to Mae Donaldson, providing she can get it on.

I, David Mathews, do hereby pass on to Donnie Glowe my broad shoulders; eat your spinach every day, Donnie.

I, Richard Meredith, do hereby bequeath my voice and ability to be faithful to one girl at a time to Bernie O'Reilly.

I, Frank Nephew, do hereby will my ability to debate with Mr. Banning to Harlan Free.

I, Judith O'Reilly, do hereby leave my rendition of "Glow Worm" to Jean Sisley.

I, Sheldon Owens, do hereby will my Model A Ford to anyone who happens to have a motor and four tires.

I, Irene Panak, do hereby will my Treasurer's book to anyone who can fill in the forms.

I, Laddie Papp, do hereby bequeath my studious ways to Ronald Betts.

I, Gene Pearce, do hereby leave my trombone to Donnie Davis, hoping that he can sleep as much.

I, James Porter, do hereby will my pitch pipe to Jean Sisley.

I, Robert Reed, do hereby leave my devilish tricks and blue eyes to Dick McCurdy.

I, Patricia Roberts, do hereby will my skating ability, which isn't much, and my finger nails to Maxine Mauk.

I, Reid Smith, do hereby will my free flow of speech and few working efforts to Bob Bartholomew.

I, Ivan Swick, do hereby bequeath my cowboy boots to Larry Cole, hoping he can grow into them.

I, Kathryn Tippet, do hereby will my height and blue eyes to Shirley Barr.

I, Lillian Watts, do hereby leave my chair in band to anyone who likes music.

I, Sharlene Winningham, do hereby will and bequeath my bright ideas and giggles to Marjorie Whitmore.

To all the teachers, we leave the memory of our having been the most attentive and obedient class they have ever instructed.

To Mrs. Hoffman, we leave the scratches on the desks, and the chewing gum under the chairs and desks. We also wish to express our appreciation of her never-failing aid when we needed it.

We sadly leave behind for Mr. Sulek, the thirteen chairs in band left vacant by the graduating seniors. May our ghosts learn to be more attentive than we were and to watch your ever-waving baton.

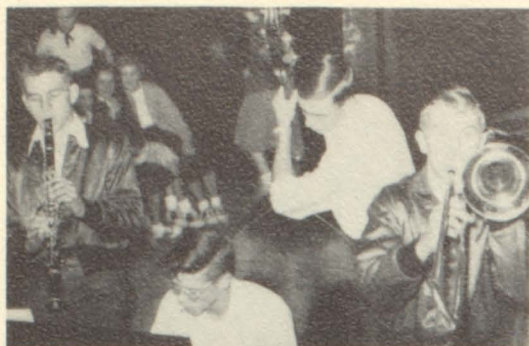

We, the Seniors of 1953, hereby declare and set our seal hereto on this, the nineteenth day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

Sharlene Winningham
