Ward E. Banning

Dedication

We, the class of '57, dedicate this yearbook to Ward E. Banning, our class adviser and our wonderful friend.

Because of his good-nature and teasing ability we have thought of him more as a friend than a teacher for the past seven years. The little things he has done to benefit us were unnumerable, and they will live on forever in our hearts as true tokens of ardent faithfulness and neverfailing friendship.

Band

The most important events of our 1956 school year were the district and state contests in which the band took part and won superior ratings.

In the 1957 season the band was under the direction of Mr. Daniel McKeel. The class of 1957 wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. McKeel for the effort he put forth to make this a successful year in band.

HELEN PANAK

Helen has been a member of the band for seven years. She plays French horn and is indeed an asset to the brass section.

DONNA SMITH

A member of the band for seven years, Donna added her musical talent to our clarinet section.

DOROTHY GLOWE

A member of our band for six years, Dorothy added her music abilities to our clarinet section also.

LEONA KAGY

Leona has been a member of our fine band for seven years. She added her talent to the flute section.

Girls Softball Team

The Klipperetts started out the season with a loss to Hartford, 19 to 3. This did not keep them from going on and finishing the rest of the season with victories: Kinsman 15, Vernon 1; Kinsman 23, Fowler 14.

The yearly batting average is as follows:

The Klippers rolled up 114 points in taking District 3 track crown for the 7th straight year. They took 9 firsts and with the help of the girls we took the district with little trouble.

The girls coached by Mr. Titus had many young girls on the team which showed plenty of promise in the future. They scored but 6 points in the district which was taken by the Fowler girls.

The Klippers under the guidance of Coach Frank Savich had an average season winning 7 of 19 games. The varsity got off to a bad start losing their first game to Andover and never seemed to get going after that. We entered the T.I.A. Tournament in the second round and lost to Bristol by a score of 63-62 in a well played game that was exciting right up to the last second.

Turning Back the Clock

The clock struck one! It was 1945, and several shy and frightened children started a new and exciting life of going to school. Those of us who started that memorable day together were: Helen Panak, Donna Jean Smith, Ann Wall, Pat Gilmore, Beth Banning, Frances Fenn, Dennis Gates and Charles Barr. The most outstanding event of this year was the time we were all lined up and spanked with Charlie McCarthy for being noisy returning from the auditorium.

As the clock struck 2 and 3, we were promoted from Miss Thompson's room to Mrs. Porter's. We were becoming more brilliant all the time. In fact, I think we learned to print our name and color by this time! We had three new additions in these two years, Leona Kagy, Bill Seaborn, and Bill Somerville.

The clock struck four! This was the year that David Vogel, Paul Lauer, and James Fitch came into our lives to finish their school life with us.

As the clock struck five, we were planning big on moving up stairs next year to finish the next seven years. Judith McCracken and James Sealy came into our one big happy family this year.

At the stroke of 6 we were ushered into Mr. Banning's room. He was to be our class advisor and guide from now on. Another addition took place, Lee Donaldson moved here from Middlefield to complete his education.

The clock struck seven, and we were finally getting adjusted to being upstairs. Roberta Morrison joined us to enlarge our class. This year we broke all speed records trying to get to class on time.

At the stroke of 8 we were well on our way to learning. This year we had several class parties and picnics. Frank McBride enrolled in our class this year.

At 9 o'clock we were initiated by the class of '54, we were all decked out and pretty as could be. By now we knew all there was to know. Frank McBride left us this year and returned when the clock struck ten.

As the clock chimed eleven, we were Juniors. The most wonderful year ever. We worked hard to raise money for our banquet, it was well worth our effort. We entertained at the Shenago Inn in Sharon. Our class play, "Mumbo Jumbo" is a memory never to be forgotten. Our class advisor Mr. Banning deserved a medal for his patience.

The clock has completed the round, and we are now entering the last hour of our school life. Mary Langietti joined us to make a total of 20, and we hope to see each other often in the future. Mr. Banning has been our advisor all through the years. We didn't have an Operetta although we will long remember our Banquet, Commencement, Classnight, and finally our Senior trip.

As the clock prepares to strike one we prepare to leave, carrying with us many happy memories of the swell times we had in good old K.H.S. As we are ready to journey around the clock again, we hope that this journey will be as successful as the one we have just completed.

Why I'm a Senior

Because they pushed me up here.
 Because I wanted my diploma.
 That's a good question.
 Because it's traditional for a 12th grader to be a senior.
 I don't know.
 12 years is enough for anyone.
 Because there wasn't any better place to put me.
 I'm too smart to be anything else.
 To raise a rumpus on the Senior trip.
 Guess the teachers want to get rid of me.
 Because it's time to leave.
 Because I'm a friend of Bob's.
 You got me snowed.
 It's customary.
 It's about time.
 Tell me and we'll both know.
 They don't want me any longer.
 Because I like school and now it's time to leave.
 It's in the book.
 Because it's the nearest thing to graduation.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1957, of the High School of Kinsman, of the county of Trumbull and State of Ohio; being indisputably of sound mind and memory and about to pass out of existence; do make public and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills by us at any time heretofore made.

To Mr. Robert Titus, our Superintendent, and the Faculty, we leave peace of mind.

To the class of "58", we leave the responsibility of being Seniors and initiating the Freshmen.

To the class of "59", we leave the ability to get along in class meetings.

To the class of "60", we leave our athletic abilities.

I, Beth Banning, leave my typing ability to anybody that needs it.

I, Charles Barr, leave my baseball ability to Sonny Fenn--keep them hustling, Sonny.

I, Lee Donaldson, leave my studying ability to Tom Gross.

I, Frances Fenn, leave the attendance slips to anyone that wants to fill them out.

I, James Fitch, leave my weight and muscles to John Schroedel.

I, Dennis Gates, leave my seat in second period study hall (on the floor by Mrs. Hoffman) to Kevin O'Reilly, if he can hold the paper down.

I, Patricia Hunt, leave my ability to miss school to anyone who can break the record.

I, Leona Kagy, leave all my good times and good driving to Pat Bloss and Ardith Winningham.

I, Mary Langietti, leave my poor typing ability to those who can do better.

I, Paul Lauer, leave---

I, Frank McBride, leave my good driving ability to Herb Noble.

I, Judy McCracken, leave my music ability to Lois Phillis.

I, Roberta Brown, leave anyone in the Junior class who is looking for work on the annual.

I, Helen Panak, leave my blue eyes and blonde hair to Jackie Earhart.

I, William Seaborn, leave Kinsman School to anybody who wants it.

I, James Sealy, leave my height and weight to Kevin O'Reilly.

I, Donna Smith, leave my cheerleading ability to Joyce Morford.
Good luck, Joyce.

I, William Somerville, leave my Bookkeeping ability to anybody that needs it.

I, David Vogel, leave my ability to play cards and shoot pool to Bill Mott and Dick Wade.

I, Ann Wall, leave my height to Mona Jones.

Class Prophecy

Swish--and off I go on the magic carpet which carries me off into the future and the year 1977.

Boom--and I've landed and gee whiz things surely have changed. What's this I've landed on? A 10,000 acre farm with ultra-modern machinery. Oh no, there's a sign reading "Keep off. Private property." It's signed Dennis Gates and partners, Jim Fitch and Lee Donaldson. I hear they're all millionaires now.

There's a rocket overhead. Wonder if Cub and Leona are up there. Take good care of those passengers, kids. Did I say kids? Gracious me, they're old now.

Several of my classmates own their own businesses. Across the street I see Paine & Banning Grocery Store. Beth owns several I understand. Venturing down the street I see an extremely large Sanitary Dairy business. Guess Jim Sealy and Bill Somerville are the big bosses there. Who's that working for them? Why I do believe that stenographer is my former classmate, Frances Fenn. Seems like I've seen that private secretary before, too. Looks like Mary Langietti.

Certainly good old K.H.S. still exists and sure enough there it is. There have been some changes in the faculty in the past 20 years due to retirements, deaths and accidents. My goodness there's the principal. Oh no, not Paul Lauer. Guess it is. Who's that teacher teaching grade two. Surely does look like Donna Smith. What a shame 38 and still an old maid. Word has gotten around that she has a terrible time making those Jim Brown and Melvyn Hunt kids behave. Pat and Roberta are happy married housewives with high standings in the community.

Frank has become the world's champion stock-car driver. He's been holding this title for the past 10 years. If his eyesight doesn't fail him, the guy will last another 10.

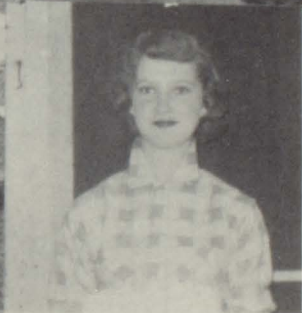

My gracious, that little kid has lungs. Reminds me of an old school mate. Somebody just called her little Judy McCracken. No wonder that child's screaming. Ann Wall is preparing to give him a shot. Ann is a medical technician I understand.

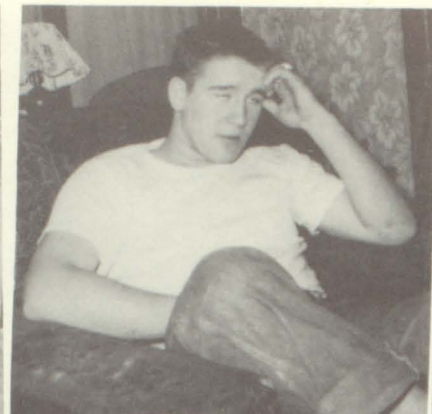

Bill Seaborn is working for the government out West. Seems like he's becoming pretty important.

Helen has moved to New York and is now working in Paris modeling Johnathan Logan's latest styles.

David Vogel works hand in hand with Cub and Leona's rocket line. He operates a red-checker cab service between rocket stops. Girls swoon over him and call him the "James Dean of 1977."

Well, it's getting dark and it's time I started off for home. Sure has been fun looking in on my former classmates.
