Lyndon E. Little Acquires Alling Block Property

One of the largest real estate transactions here in several months was completed this afternoon, when Lyndon E. Little purchased the Alling Block property at 708-715 Main street from William F. Sledjeski, proprietor of the Shell Cha-teau. Gerard E. Loisel, local realtor, served as agent for completion of the transaction.

On the first floor of the brick building are the Rhode Island Textile Company store, of which Mr. Little is proprietor, and the S. K. Ames, Inc. store. The second floor includes offices and the third floor two apartments.

The transaction also includes transfer of a large brick storage building in the rear of the main block.

The property in question is in the heart of the local business district practically opposite the foot-bridge. It has been in possession of Mr. Sledjeski for about a year, the latter having acquired it from the Alling interests in New London at that time.
