~~#~~ Today was clear and pretty over head but with temperatures of low 2° high 10° and about 10 to 12 inches of snow on the ground it wasn't so good. I would have liked to have gone out for a while but knowing what the breathing of cold air might do to me I stayed in all day except going out only long enough to feed the birds.

I had been there only a few minutes when Leo Galloway and Ruth came in. We all got very good looks at the bird from only about 20 feet distance. Mark had called back to his home and Dave Easterla and Tim Barbsdole were to come over. They hadn't arrived yet when we finally left. Pearl + I also saw a Coyote out on the ice. We got back home at 4:15 P.M.

This was really a winter day. It was cold, windy and snowy all day. Temperatures were low -8° high 24°. It started snowing last night about 7 P.M. and apparently it snowed all night long. When we got up this morning snow was everywhere in drifts all around our place up to 2 feet or more. The only time I was out today was twice to put out feed for the birds and once to burn trash. This afternoon when I took our trash out the snow in places were about half way between my knees and hips. I couldn't hardly walk. I had to take a few steps and then rest. This weather is covering all of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska. It is in blizzard conditions over most all of the four states. All roads in Kansas are closed and many of the highways in Missouri are closed. The forecast ~~is~~ is for temperatures to go from 5 to 15 below zero tonight, maybe lower. Many roads were blocked where large trailer trucks had jackknifed. I hate to think of how the birds and animals will suffer tonight. At 6 P.M. this evening with 3° reading the chill index is a minus 40° reading. We have winds of 3 to 40 miles per hour. Dave Freeman + Eldon worked this morning. Dave couldn't get out at his home at all. Eldon could because he lives on a well travelled street so he went by Dave's house + picked him up. I talked to Eldon at 10 A.M. + he said that they were snowed in at the Wholesale. Now at 8:15 P.M. it is a minus 4° , at the rate it is dropping it could easily be 10 to 15 below zero by morning.

Today turned out to be a nice (stopy) day. During the early hours of last evening we had a freezing rain. It took some trees down + some power lines. Luckily for us it stopped after about four hours or we would probably have lost some of our evergreen trees here at home. This morning everything was like a sheet of glass. It was really slick. I feel that I was lucky to get to work. Along about 10 a.m. it began clearing off and we had a fair amount of sunshine during the rest of the day. The temperatures today were low 33° high 38°. Snow is forecast for tonite.

Today was clear & nice. It was even sloppy underfoot. Temperatures were low 6° ~~low~~ high 28°. At 8 a.m.

Larry and I headed for Squaw Creek. We made a short stop at Honey Creek on our way. We arrived at Squaw Creek about 9:30 a.m. We got back home at about 2 P.M. On our way up we got behind a snow blower on hiway 59. It is the first large one I have ever seen. At Squaw Creek we saw a rabbit, several squirrels, one coyote, one Raccoon and five deer. On our way home we went out east of town & got on one road that we finally had to turn around and come out because the road was blocked by snow. At one place we went through an area where the snow was above the tops of my car on both sides and the doors couldn't be opened up completely without opening into the snow banks. Later this afternoon about 4 P.M. I ~~am~~ walked through the Cemetery. One of the deer that Larry and I saw, we walked to within about 20 feet of it before it saw us and ran.

Today was cold, partly cloudy but pleasant. The temperatures were low -9° high 21° . I got up at 7 AM.

After breakfast (after a 2 to 3 inch snow overnight) I went out & swept snow and then fed the birds and squirrels.

At 11 AM. Pearl & I drove to Squaw Creek. We got back home about 2 P.M. Then about 4 P.M. I drove to Ashland Cemetery where I took my usual walk. Seeing the Canada geese near Squaw Creek, Mourning doves at Ashland, Red wings and Grackles here at home makes me wonder could they be the forerunners of things moving in for an early spring. At Squaw Creek we saw one deer, one Raccoon and several squirrels.

Today was cloudy, windy + cold all day. The temperatures were low 26° high 30°. We have had no snow at all except for just a spitting of snow for which I am happy. I got up at 7:15 a.m. After breakfast Beal + I drove to Lake Contrary and back through Ashland Cemetery + home. Then after lunch Larry + I went out for a drive east of town. We went part way out on Easton Road but had to back track some because the road was under water. We drove through water one place. ~~Both~~ Both the Platte River and Third Fork was out of their banks. Nodaway River was out of its banks yesterday in the vicinity of the Town of Nodaway. One person was washed away and another person can not be found.

Today was mostly clear and pleasant. Temperatures were low 29° high 40°. I am really pooped tonight. Paul Boyles, one of our route drivers has been off now for over two months from falling & hurting his back while on delivery and today Dave Greeman was off sick. Monday is always our busiest day of the week and today Tim & I were the only ones there doing four mens work.
