Today was clear, cool and nice. I slept late and because we were going to a picnic late this afternoon over to Pearl's sister Alides place we spent most of the day getting ready for it. We did take a little ride this morning along a little frequented road in the Amazonia area. Pearl's sister lives just across the highway from the Pigeon Hill Wildlife area. I could have added more birds if I had gone there but I didn't. The temperatures today were low about 59° high about 75°.

Today was clear and really nice. A good breeze kept it rather pleasant. I slept until 8 A.M. Went to Church A.M. and they spent 1:30 P.M. to 9:45 P.M. with Si + Marya Rositzky from home to Squaw Creek and back. We didn't see any one we knew at Squaw Creek. We ate supper on our way home at Forest City, Mo. Temp low 65° high 89°

Harold Burgess is being transferred from Squaw Creek to the La Creek N.W.R. in South H.
He is leaving this next Thursday Aug 17th. This field trip was in his honor. We have had some real nice birding trips with Harold and will hate to see him leave.

Today was cloudy and very humid until just before noon, then clear, hot and humid all afternoon and evening. We had a gain of about half an inch in the well hours of the morning. Temperatures today were low about 72° high about 93°. Pearl, Lois & Marlette painted in our living room all day today so this evening I stayed in and helped a bit. It was too hot to get out any way.
