Harry L. George,

St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear sir:-

In further reference to the saddles which I have. As I told you I have four of these saddles and I have decided to sell one more of them and keep three. The one I have for sale is made of Elk horns and raw hide and has a buffalo hide seat piece also buffalo hide girth. It is a fine old specimen, has stirrups and straps attached. I will let you have it at the same price as the other one.

I do not believe there are a dozen old saddles in the whole Sioux tribe at the present time and I do not know of any for sale any where, however, four are a little more than I want to keep.

If you want this one kindly let me know and I will send same to you, or advise me promptly in order that I may write another party.

Very truly yours,

Grant Thornburgh
