Mr. Harry L. George,
St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear Mr. George:-

I have a ceremonial rope about twenty feet long made of woven Buffalo hair, very rare and old piece, used for tying prisoners, and considered sacred which I will sell for $25.00.

Also have one dew claw rattle, old one belonged to a Medicine man, made of dew claws, or deer hoofs, and very rare which I will sell for $10.00. This is similar to the one I have in my war bundle.

Very truly yours,

W. K. Thompson
