Clear & cold all day. I only birded about 5 hours today. Late AM & early PM. The temperatures were low about 13° high about 35°

January 2, 1967 Monday

Today we took the Xmas count at Squaw Creek. The following list is my birds only. Later when I get the complete report from Harold Bugger I will enter it here in my records. Pipel + I left home about 6 AM & arrived back home about 7 PM. It was cloudy & cool 7 AM till 7 AM. 11 AM till 3:30 PM it showed heavily & the visibility was poor. 3:30 PM till 5 PM mist was still cloudy & cool. About 8" of snow on the ground & all areas frozen over except 2 small holes in the creek kept open by the ducks.

Besides Pearl & I, a Mr & Mrs Wiggs from near Hamburg, Iowa, Harold Burgess and John Hamilton participated in the Xmas Count.

Our best bird, no doubt was the Goshawk, Pearl, John & I all saw it. Pearl & I spent most of the afternoon birding in areas south and west of Squaw Creek although within a 7 1/2 mile radius of head quarters. Temperatures low about 26° high about 32°. Although all birds are listed as SA some of them could have been seen 7 1/2 miles from head quarters.

Today was clear & cold. Low about 6° high about 31°. Pearl & I left home at 8:45 AM & got back at 12:45 PM. We drove 94 miles in a sort of circle south east of town. We drove so. east on 169 past Plattsburg Mo then cut over to near Trimble, back north on County & state roads till we hit the road east of town that goes through Easton Mo & came back in that way. John Hamilton had seen a Red poll in King Park earlier in the morning. I went up & looked for it but no luck. I went over to Norman Lowens home to watch a football game on his color TV set during the afternoon. On Monday of this past week (1/9/67) Pearl saw a Bohemian Wren here at home in our yard.

This was more like an April day. Mostly cloudy, windy, rain, some hail in the area and 3 Tornadoes within about 50 miles of St. Joe. I ran the western Iowa Route today. The one that goes north on Hy 71 to US Hy 2 at Olin, west on 2 to Sidney Iowa, south there on 275 + 59 to home. Temperatures low about 30° high 65°. Wind is now (7PM) in the north and the temperature is rapidly dropping.

I ran the route today (301 miles) in north west Mo and south west Iowa. Larry went with me.

The day was beautiful. Clear & cold. Temperature low about 12° high about 25°. Most of the highway were clear of snow & ice. The worst part of all was near St Joe. As a result of a frozen down condition and a lot of snow shoveling Thursday afternoon Pearl is now in the hospital. We took her in Thursday evening about 6 P.M. The doctor said it was not a heart attack but heart failure.

This was a screwy day weatherwise. I birded 8am to 10am by myself at KP. Temp. was about 47°. At about 10am Pearl & I took our drive out east of town & through the Cemetery. At 10am the wind switched to the north & started blowing hard & getting colder. By late tonight the temp. had dropped to 17°. I birded all afternoon & evening at Spruce Creek with Si Rositzky, Bob Brown, Roy Roy, & John H. Bulger. The wind was so strong & cold we didn't do much good. One treat we had was watching a Mink play on the ice.

Clear and nice. The temperatures today were low about 32° high about 55°. I banded today at Trimble Wildlife Area, Pony.

Express Wildlife Area, Honey Creek Wildlife Area and Squaw Creek. I birded all day with Pearl. We started off at 8 A.M. and worked up back home at 6:30 P.M. We drove about 22.5 miles. At Trimble we saw the hybrid Geese crossed between the Canada and the regular barnyard Lag goose which lately many people has misidentified as the Tule Goose.
