Today was cloudy, windy + cold. The temperatures were low 9° high 37°. It has began getting colder since about noon and is expected to go down to near zero tonight. I came home for lunch today and while I was eating we had company. Mark Robbins came in for about 30 minutes on his way home from the K.C. airport where he had flown in from southern Texas. He has spent the past two weeks in Mexico leading some birding tours. He is now only 21 years of age and I believe that he is one of the best birders in the U.S. right now. He expects to graduate from the University of Arizona at Tucson next year at this time. Then before going on for his Masters and P.H.D he wants to spend a year in Africa. I sure hope that he can go. It makes me feel good to know that even though he had his mother and grandmother with him and he was on his way home he had to stop by to see me before going home.

Today was clear and cold. The temperatures were low -3° high 13° . One of our route men called in sick this morning so I ran his route. I ran it by myself today I went high way 6 all the way to Green City, Mo + back about 260 miles. All birds listed east of town was on this drive I left town at 11:30 a.m. & got back at 4:45 P.M. Because of snow in the fields many little birds flushed from alongside the road. I would estimate about 10,000 small birds probably 90% or better of Juncos & Tree Sparrows

Today was partly cloudy & chilly. The temperatures were low 38° high 48° . at 7am. Leo Galloway and I left my place and headed for Squaw Creek where we tagged along on a field trip of the Kansas City Audubon Society. We birded there 8am until about 3PM. I don't know just how many there were of us but Leo and I were on the registers as No 84 and 85. When we got back to town we birded through Ashland Cemetery. We also saw three Coyotes out on the ice at Squaw Creek this morning

Today was cloudy, fine blowing snow + cold. Temperatures were low 16° high 21°. This was my evening to drive to Helena, Mo. Because the fields were covered with snow many of the little birds came to the bare roadsides to feed. There were so many that would fly up ahead of the car I feel that some of them were probably sparrows and longspurs..

Today was cloudy all day with rain, sleet & snow all day, mostly snow. Late this afternoon it cleared off. Temperatures were low 30° high 39°. I did not work today. I had planned on going to Kansas City early this morning with Dave Easterla, Les Galloway and John Hamilton to see a Hairy Redpoll that ~~had~~ been reported visiting a feeder there. It had been coming to a feeder there for about 10 days but has failed to show up the last two days. Because of that we did not go. So instead Leo Galloway and I bided 8:30am until 12 noon at Krug Park, out east of town and down around the lakes southwest of town.

Today was clear & chilly all day but nice. The temperatures were low 21° high 45°. I slept until 7am then after breakfast Pearl & I took off at 8:30am & drove through Krug Park, out east of town, through Ashland Cemetery & then down around Lake Contrary, Mud Lake, Muskrat Lake, Horseshoe Lake and back home. We got home at 11:40am. There was a note at home from Lois that Nanette Johnson had called from Kansas City to tell me that the Hoary Redpoll had been back to the feeder again this morning. I call Leo Holloway at 12 Noon and then at 12:30 Leo + I took off and headed for 13108 E. 44th Terrace in Independence Mo. to try for the Hoary Redpoll. It was 69 miles and a 90 minute drive. Leo did the driving in his little volkswagen. As my list shows we did not see the bird. It was seen for the last time today at 10 A.M. Leo + I stood outside in one place watching for it from 2 P.M. till a bit after 5 P.M. We got home at about 6:45 P.M.

Today was clear + nice. The temperatures were low 35° high 59°. Les Galloway called me at work this morning and told me that two of his students had been birding at the airport on ~~Sat~~ Monday 23rd afternoon and observed three gulls. He described them as different in size. One, the largest one was much larger than the other two and it was entirely white with no dark in the primaries at all. Les has a lot of faith in the two boys so there is a very good chance that we missed a Glaucous Gull. Les birded there today 2 P.M. until 4 P.M. + Paul + I birded there 4 P.M. until 5:10 P.M. without success as far as the gull was concerned. I got a letter today from Nanette Johnson and she said that the Hoary? Redpoll was back at the feeder again on Monday and Tuesday mornings. The bird was mist netted and banded yesterday morning. I don't know all of the particulars yet but maybe I will before the whole thing is over. I plan on calling Nanette tomorrow.
