Purchasing Agent and Traffic Manager

Lincoln, Neb. April 4th, 1914.

Mr. H.L. George,

St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear sir:-

I acknowledge receipt of your letter and check of April 3rd in payment of the three articles for which accept my thanks.

Will say I am sending you on approval by parcel post a very rare necklace of bears claws and tooth charm. The tooth charm in this necklace came from a bear fourteen feet in length tail to nose, the white claws are from the grizzly, and the black claws from black bear. The small circular stone beads are the original wampum beads, hand made, as are the cap beads, the other beads are also old, the large blue bead in one of the Hudson Bay money beads. This necklace is an old one and rare and am sending it to you first as I figure I will not have it long. Price of this necklace is $20.00.

If you do not want it kindly return to me promptly insured.

Yours truly,

Grant Thornburgh
