

Chamber board post to Arnold

Robert L. Arnold has been appointed to the St. Joseph Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the chamber announced yesterday. The appointment is effective immediately. Arnold succeeds Barry McCoy, who recently sold his business and moved from the community.

Arnold has been the manager of the Sears, Roebuck & Co. store at 2301 Mes-sanie since 1976 and has been with Sears for 15 years. Prior to that he managed various Sears store departments. Arnold also serves on the Junior Achievement Board and the Salvation Army Board.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Arnold attended Wichita State University. He is married and is the father of three sons.
