Mr Harry L. George:

Dear Sir:

I have carefully read what you said about the Hopi Beads and I feel sure they are genuine & very rare. Knowing how I got them from a young man who sold me a great many things & all were real & this set of Hopi Beads was the crown of his collection, so I have decided I will not take less than $50.00 for them and at that from you only as I know you are going to put them in a collection other wise I am going to ask for them & get it to if I wait long enough $100.00 & maybe more if I happen to get a rich person who wants them for an Indian corner or one who is not such a good judge & class & good buyer as you are, so if you want them I will let you have them now for $50.00 & I will not say that prices will always be on them if I still have them when you come my way again.

so I advise you to get them while you can for ~~your~~ & congratulate you self upon getting such a perfect & strong Hampton Bread Plate at so reasonable price Hoping I hear from you Remaining yours truly
C. H. Hewitt
