Today was clear & hot all day except for about one hour this afternoon when it clouded up but did not rain.

Temperatures today were low about 72° high about 94°. I slept until 7:30 AM. At about 9:30 a.m. Pearl & I took a drive down around the lakes. Birding was only fair. It is really terribly dry now. All dirt and rocky roads are terrible to drive because of the dust. We have had less than one inch of rain since some time in June. We had only .44 of an inch of rain during July and only a trace so far this month.

Today was mostly clear & hot. The temperatures were low about 64° high about 90°. We did all of our summering around today in the general areas of Estes Park and Loveland. Really I was a bit disappointed in my days birding. We came back to the Motel about 3:30 P.M. We finally decided that instead of staying over tomorrow to leave on Friday morning we will leave tomorrow morning and get home late tomorrow evening. My biggest disappointment was not getting any new birds for Colorado.
