

F. D. LETTON

CURIOS

OLD COINS

SKINS AND FURS

MOUNTED BIRDS

SELF CLOSING TOBACCO POUCH
Patented in Mexico.

INDIAN RELICS

INDIAN POTTERY

NAVAJO BLANKETS

BEAD WORK

321 Park Avenue, Raton, New Mexico

I have a large and complete assortment of San Domingo Indian Pottery, sizes holding from two gallons up to five gallons, prices $2.50 to $5.00. Designs and colors burnt into them very prettily.

Many kinds of bead work made by Indians.

Navajo Indian Saddle Bags, waterproof, $8.00 each. Made of all wool yarn in many pretty designs and colors.

Chimayo Indian Blankets at prices ranging from $1 to $15.

Armadillo Baskets at $2.00 each.

Bear, Eagle and Hawk Claws from 5c. to 25c each.

Taos Pueblo Moccasins. Apache, Cheyenne and Sioux Moccasins from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

Three very old Taos Pueblo Indian Baskets with bottoms out, flat or bowl shape. $2.00 each or all three for $5.00.

Some very old Buffalo Horns, per dozen $2.00. These horns are more or less cracked from old age.

Old Indian Bracelets, $1.00 to $3.00 each. Also Indian Rings, $1.00 to $2.50 each. Also Cactus Canes with deer feet mounted at both ends, $2.00. Loose Cactus Canes, 25c each. Deer feet hat or gun racks, three feet on each rack, $2.25 each.

Many mounted birds and badgers will be closed out at very low prices.

Indian rawhide tobacco pouches, 50c each.

Four pairs mounted steer horns for racks, mounted on board and covered with wood pulp. One of these has three pairs. They are colored in black, green, red and blue and are very attractive. Price for lot $20.

I also have new Indian pottery made by the following tribes: Maqui Indians, in cream colors, 50c to $2. Acoma pottery, pieces in various sizes holding up to three gallons, 25c to $3. San Domingo pottery 10c to $1 per piece. One very old Apache water bottle, lined with pine pitch, holds about three gallons, in good condition, $5.

Six oil paintings of buffalo, also one of nude Indian mounted on bare back horse. One of two buffalo. One of Indian two story building.

I have also many new Apache Indian made baskets.

One flint lock shot gun, Harpers' Ferry make, made in 1831, 40-inch barrel. One cap and ball squirrel rifle, 36-inch barrel in good condition, copper powder flask, complete $12. Muzzle loading shotgun, spring lock, $5.

One buffalo robe, 7 feet 4 inches long, 6 feet 3 inches wide, fur good, lined, about forty-five years old, made from cow buffalo hide, $125.

Large mountain lion mounted on board, cheap at $25.

Twenty two pieces old Taos Pueblo pottery in black and some brown clay, very old, in sizes from one quart to five gallons, $35 for the lot.

Indian saints, painted with vegetable dye, mounted on board platform, six of them, very old, three of these figures are from fourteen to sixteen inches high, lot $15.

Eight old pistols for $16.

Two mounted wild cats, $6. One mounted badger, $3.50.

Two old Indian corn grinders, one with carved legs, other one oblong, both have hard stones. Are very old.

Eight Indian club stones four to six inches long, at $1.50 each.

One tomahawk, handle made of rawhide and buffalo skin, $3.00.

Four quivers with bows and arrows, some new, some old, $7.00 each.

One buffalo spear, made from old file and mounted on stick, is very old, price $6.

Double headed drums, each $8. Six tom-toms, old ones, $3.00 each.

One old Indian loom without shuttle, $150.

Two pairs of old Indian Chaps, or leggins, made of Taos Indian tanned buckskin, $10.00.

One Indian painting on wild horse hide, illustrative of the old Indian games, hair in good condition, original color sorrel, $15.

Twenty-five old Mexican and Indian blankets, made from sheep wool, various colors, $5.00 to $20.

Many new Navajo blankets, prices $5 to $35.

Apache Indian bows and arrows, new ones, $1.25 set.

Several mounted deer heads, $15 each.

One pair velvet mounted deer horns, horns black tail deer, $15.

Five Taos Pueblo Indian made war bonnets, one medicine man's with tail reaching to ground, another medicine song man's with double row of feathers down back, $25 each.

One Apache Indian war bonnet, trail of Eagle feathers down back, $16.

Two chief's bonnets, black tipped feathers, no trail, prices each, $16.

Bead work, arrow points, spear heads, and mounted lynx, wild cat and wolf rugs.

Indian bead cuffs, Indian tanned buckskin, western mountain butterflies, mineral specimens, and Rocky Mountain gems, Indian vests.

White topaz, most perfect crystal except diamond.

Mexican saddles, old spanish bell, Indian robes or dresses, Indian suits.

New Mexico

Raton NM March 19th 1917
Mr Harry L George
Dear Sir

Some time past you ask me
if my Buffalo Robe was painted
By the Indians & it seems to me that you prepared one.
That was painted. Now Mr George
I have one now very old one butty good Ding With Indian Painting on it. Some of the Painting is very dim. But is a fine Speciment in good shape
Do if you are in the Market for a good old Relic - I will send it to you for your approval of.

The Price is $100⁰⁰ one hundred dollars. I have other Parties that wants a Buffalo Robe. But I thought I would give you the first chance to Buy. So let me know if you care to see it. I will send it to you
Yours Respt

H. D. ...