Mr. Harry L. George,

St. Joseph, Mo.,

Dear sir:-

In addition to the articles which I sent you the other day, I have two old Turtle Leg bone necklaces, one of which I will dispose of to you. These are from the Turtle cult of the Sioux and consist of some 150 or 200 bones from the leg of the turtle, ends painted red. I doubt if you have ever seen any of these outside of a museum. The State Historical society have one of them here. You may have one of these at $10.00. I also have a human finger bone necklace made from the bones from the middle fingers of seventeen different people, there being thirty four finger bones in the necklace. This is a rare piece. Price of this piece is $12.00. I also have a good pair of buckskin chaps or leggins full buck size, painted yellow, heavily fringed and beaded, has the dragon fly design on it also row of horse shoes representing a fleet pony or a long journey at $15.00. Also have one old Buffalo hide quiver and bow case seen service in historic times at $15.00. This piece has the buffalo hair intact.

Hoping to hear from you, I am,

Very truly yours,

Grant Thornburgh
