PHOTOCOPYING POLICY

All photocopying must be approved by fulltime reference staff or a curator. Obtaining a photocopy does not grant the receiver the right to publish copyrighted materials. Researchers are responsible for securing permission to publish copyrighted materials from the holder of the copyright. In many instances the Department does not hold this copyright.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Overnight Copies

Twenty-five cents per page.
