Order marks 100 years here

The Sisters of Loretto marked 100 years in Joliet Sunday with a graveside prayer service at Mount Olivet Cemetery where eight nuns of the order are buried. The Sisters of Loretto came to Joliet in 1880 from Canada at the request of the pastor of St. Mary's Church. Sister Angelina Shannon, the general superior of the religious community, presided at the Sunday services. (Herald-News photo)
