IBVM JOLIET BACKGROUND

We are gathered here today to commemorate our sisters who worked in Joliet many years ago. Throughout the years the people of Joliet have remained loyal friends to the Loretto Sisters, and we wish today to express our gratitude to them for their continuing friendship and loyalty to the Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

It was on August 30, 1880, that Reverend Mother Teresa Dease arrived in Joliet from Toronto at the request of Father Maurice F. Burke, the pastor of St. Mary's Church and Father Walter Powers, the pastor of St. Patrick's Church. With Mother Teresa were three sisters:

Sister M. Gonzaga Gallivan	1843-1912
Sister M. Dosithea Gibney	1842-1917
Sister M. Lidwina Doyle	-1888

After a week in Joliet Mother Teresa returned to Toronto and knowing "the harvest was plentiful and the laborers few," sent four additional sisters to Joliet. They were:

Sister M. Agnes McKenna	1847-1927
Sister M. Bathilde McBrady	1855-1909
Sister M. Angels Lynn	1854-1924
Sister M. Amelia Hurley	1855-1920.

These women and their successors set a marvelous pace for IBVM education in the United States. Besides conducting a parochial school for boys and girls, they gave Joliet its first Academy for girls, chartered under a general law of the State of Illinois, Nov. 6, 1882. In 1892 it was accredited with DeKalb Normal and in 1903 with the University of Illinois at Urbana.

Amid many sacrifices, the Sisters purchased land on the corner of Cass and Ottawa and in 1883 built their own Academy one block from St. Mary's Church. (This property today is a postal parking lot.) The Academy was a boarding school as well as a day school and a convent for the sisters who later served in other parishes as well.

The Sisters endeared themselves for 38 years to the grateful people of Joliet and projected an image of IBVM that we struggle today to emulate: compassion and concern for our students, quality education, Loretto hospitality and graciousness.

AVE MARIA LORETTO

Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria Loretto; Neath western skies where faith reigns free,
A thousand temples rise in state,
Where hearts are borne on wings of song.
To our loved Queen Immaculate.
Thy children all, with hearts aflame,
Sing to thy gracious holy name, Ave Maria, Maria;
Ave Maria Loretto;
O, when we leave this place of rest, Watch o'er us still, O, Mother bless'd, Tho' pain and sorrow touch each heart, O, lead us still, from sin apart, Unto thy Son whose works we see,
Here where thy children sing to thee;
Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria; Ave Maria;
Ave Maria; Ave Maria Loretto;
When length'ning shadows o'er our way
Bid us, our trembling steps to stay;
The rainbow bending 'neath thy feet
Thy out-stretched hands, the weary greet
O, Mother mild where e'er we roam;
Call all Loretto's children home;
Ave Maria; Maria Loretto; Ave Maria Loretto.

Let us pray for our sisters, former students, relatives and all those buried in Mt. Olivet.

1st Glorious Mystery, The Resurrection

Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Closing Hymn: Salve Regina

Salve, Regina, Mater misericordiae
Vita, dulcedo, et spes nostra, salve.
Ad te clamamus, exsules, filie Hevae
Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes in hac lacrimarum valle. Eia ergo, Advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos ad nos converte. Et Jesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui,
nobis post hoc exsilium ostende.
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis Virgo Maria.

ENTRANCE SONG: "Come with Me into the Fields"
Dan Schutte, S.J.

The fields are high and summer's days are few;
Green fields have turned to gold.
The time is here for the harvesting,
For gathering home into barns.

ANTIPHON:

The harvest is plenty; laborers are few.
Come with me into the fields.
Your arms may grow weary; your shoes will wear thin.
Come with me into the fields.

The seeds were sown by other hands than yours;
Nurtured and cared for they grew.
But those who have sown will not harvest them;
The reaping will not be their care.

ANTIPHON:

PENITENTIAL RITE: "Peace Prayer"
John Foley, S.J.

PRIEST: Sometimes the seeds of love which we've been asked to sow are never spread beyond our immediate families. For the times we've failed to share ourselves with those who need us, forgive us, Lord.

ALL: Lord, make me a means of Your peace.
Where there's hatred grown, let me sow your love.
Where there's injury, Lord, let forgiveness be my sword.
Lord, make me a means of Your peace.

PRIEST: A little time and a few encouraging words could mean the difference between hope and despair for someone in need. For the times we have neglected our suffering neighbors because of selfishness, forgive us, Lord.

ALL: Lord make me a means of Your peace.
Where there's doubt and fear, let me sow
Your faith.
In this world's despair, give me hope in
You to share.
Lord, make me a means of Your peace.

PRIEST: Each of us has special gifts given by God to help spread His message of love. For the times we fail to use these gifts in the service of others, forgive us, Lord.

ALL: Lord, make me a means of Your peace.
Where there's sadness here, let me sow Your joy.
When the darkness nears, may Your light dispel our fears.
Lord, make me a means of Your peace.

FIRST READING: 1 Corinthians 3: 5-9

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

ALL: May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you!

LEFT: May God have mercy on us and bless us;
may he let his face shine upon us.
So may your way be known upon earth;
among all nations, your salvation

RIGHT: You have visited the land and watered it:
greatly have you enriched it.
Thus have you prepared the land: drenching its furrows, softening it with showers, Blessing its yield.

ALL: The earth has yielded its fruits;
God, our God, has blessed us.
May God bless us,
and may all the ends of the earth praise him!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia (sung) Come and see the works of God, his tremendous deeds among men.
Alleluia. (sung)

GOSPEL READING: Mark 4: 26-29

COMMUNION SONG: "One Bread, One Body"
John Foley, S.J.

One bread, one body, one Lord of all,
one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.

Gentile or Jew, servant or free,
woman or man, no more.

Many the gifts, many the works,
One in the Lord of all.

Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,
Gathered to one, for all.

COMMUNION MEDITATION: Philipians 1: 3-11

CLOSING SONG: "In Praise of His Name"
Roc O'Connor, S.J.

Bless the Lord, O my soul;
Bless the Lord, praise His name!
Bless the Lord, O my soul;
let all creation praise His name!

Let all creation arise
And give praise to our God.
For Yahweh alone is God.
He made us; we belong to him.

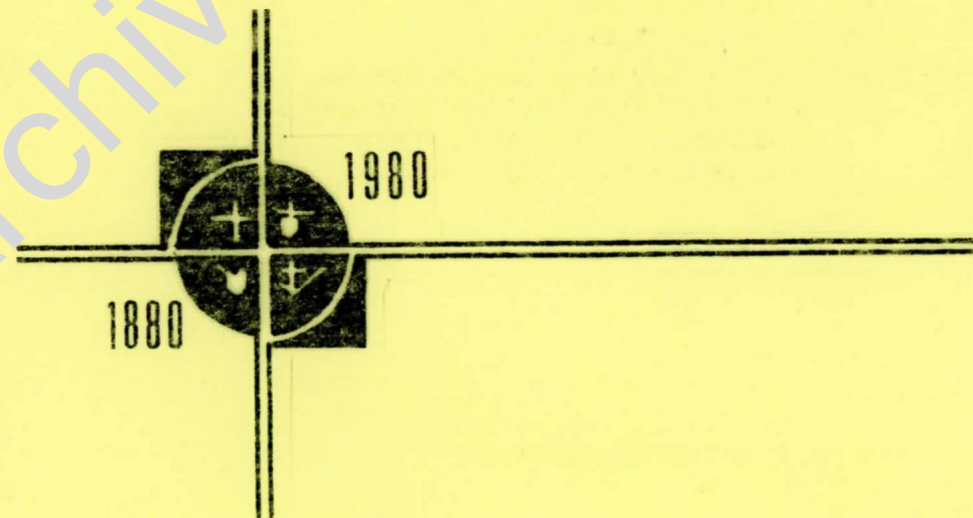

ANTIPHON

Women and men, praise our God,
And children lift up your hearts!
Enter his gates with songs of joy;
With gladness serve you the Lord.

CLOSING-SONGS "In Praise of His Name"

Rev. O'Grady, S.J.

Bless the Lord, O my soul;
Bless the Lord, praise His name!
Bless the Lord, O my soul;
Let all creation praise His name!

Let all creation arise
And give praise to our God,
For Jesus alone is God,
He made us; we belong to Him.

ANTIPHON

Moses and Sam, praise our God,
And children lift up your voice,
Opening His gates with songs of praise,
With gladness serve Him day and night.
