

1939

Nicknames

Seniors:

Marion (Jimmy) James
 Mary (Blondie Bombshell) Lydon
 Catherine (Toddy) Nealon
 Virginia (Jinny) Zimmermann
 Lorraine (Macy) McCabe
 Geraldine (Jerry) Pearce
 Mary (Mickey) Scahill
 Mary (Baby) Jacobsen

Juniors:

Margaret (Hank) Henry
 Rosemary (Gup) Usher
 Kathryn (Kitty) Ballantine
 Dorothy (Doo) Hall
 Lois (Boo) Weisbach
 Fern (Red) Anderson
 Susie (Snazie) Rogers
 Florence (Frenchy) Weber

If you know any nicknames put them in the "Lorelei" box.

Blanche Butler especially made the professor sick-a-bed with laughter when she confessed (very shyly) that she still clung to her dolls. Another martyr to the cause, Lorraine Burnette, announced that since she can't find room enough around the house for her picture dogs she bought herself a scrap book. Rosemary Usher is another dog fancier — she is always prowling about with a new pup under her arm.

Junior Committee

Standing: Martha Postal and Eleanore Glaser

Seated: Rosemary Modesta and Rosemary Usher

"Gup" as she is called by most of her friends is tall, olive-skinned, brunette, peppy and likes to visit the managers of the various theaters lately, it seems. She also reads the "Victory" intently and has four brothers.

Sights and Sounds:

The Seniors' beautiful coiffures designed for picture-taking. . . Margaret Henry's new haircut. . . Sophomores eating "Snow White" Sundaes in the 5 and 10. . . The crash in the sewing room that was Rita Durkin's shoe. . . Margaret Buckley's compact from a Miami visitor. . . Eleanor Glaser working at her Easter gown. . . Rosemary Usher being greeted with: "How's Pete?" . . . Mary Quealy's chatter about "Boots". . . A certain Freshman tumbling down the steps when she found 95% on her book reports. . . The musical accompaniment to Mother Roberta's classes.

LETTERS AND CLIPPINGS

GOING TO TOWN

By Dave Keleher

Just a brief definition of some of the characteristics that are to follow. When you say that some one is beautiful, you mean that said one is just plain beautiful. However, when you say that a person is sophisticated, you do not necessarily mean that a person is stock up, but it may mean a person carries airs that make him "older" than he really is, or that he has aristocratic tendencies, which of course, come natural. When you say that a person is stuck up, but it may mean a person carries airs that a store-room of clothes, but it does imply that he can "wear" clothes better than the ordinary person. A sense of humor doesn't mean that a person is laughing himself to death every time that you see him, but that he does appreciate a good joke or a clever wit.

Well, enough has been said, so we will go on to the final contest that has resulted in the All-Carmel choice of femmes. This contest was decided by several judges who were chosen because of their excellent taste. The ballots were secret and the final results are as follows:

WINNERS

Position	Name	School
Most Beautiful Blonde	Ditte Carlson	Hyde Park
Most Beautiful Brunette	Laverne Killackey	Mercy
Personality	Marge Mooney	Loretto (Wood.)
Best Dresser	Midge O'Ferrel	Aquinas
Most Sophisticated	June O'Connor	Longwood
Best Dancer	Lulu Buttons	Mercy
Sense of Humor	Frances Jimmrich	Loretto (Wood.)
Best Sport	Jerry Dillon	Aquinas
Best Hostess	Virginia Baird	Loretto (Wood.)
Typical Girl Friend or "Jack Armstrong" Type	Rosemary Usher	Loretto (Eng.)

EARMARKS

BY
EAVES DROPPER

Prom Notes:

From advance notices, aquamarine promises to be the most popular color. . . Marian James visualizes an old-fashioned bouquet of pink roses. . . Eleven sophomores and escorts are planning on going to the same place after the prom.—Just one big, happy family. . . Angela Fox invited Otto to the prom by letter. . . Lorraine McCabe's escort promises to come in a taxi. . . Rose-Mary Usher will be escorted by Jack Nolan. . . Dorothy Kennedy is hoping that Charley stays away from autos until the Prom. . . A census showed most of the Seniors' escorts would be repeaters. . . Mary Francis Artman has asked Peter Morgan. . . Eleanor Glaser will appear with Jack Lyons. . . Is Dorothy Hall bringing Larry Smith to the Prom? . . . Virginia Devlin would like a few suggestions concerning a tall, dark, handsome, good dancer to take to the Prom. . . Marie is taking Bob Kehoe. . . Mary Francis Roth has asked Jack Quinlan. . . The Sophomores are tight-lipped concerning their "Men". . . Will Rita Butler wear orchids again?

Loretto Elects Student Council

At the beginning of March, The Student Council consisting of sodality and class officers met to elect their officers for 1938. Miss Ruth Hackett was elected president; Rosemary Usher, vice-president; Ann Lawson, secretary; and Lucille DuCharme, treasurer.