

June 19. 1904 The Community of Soratts. Chiag. purchased 210 feet of land in Woodlawn on 65 and Washington Ave. for the sum of 15.750.
 His Grace Archbishop Lough signed the note for the funds and on the 25 of March the sod was turned for the creation of the new Soratts. The permission to do so came from the Abbey St. S. A. M. and at 2. P.M. a little procession of Priests and nuns were were seen windy their to the plot of ground destined for the important event. The first sod was turned by Rev Father Murray Parish Priest of Englewood and one by the Rev Father Kelso* PCC in whose Parish the sisters were founding.
 It was a great pleasure to have the event marked by a feast of our Blessed Virgin the Annunciation.
 The day as some holy writer remarked, that it God became Man. and Man became God.
 The next ^{it was the day} important was the laying of the corner stone. May seventh. at which Rev.
 Father Kelso, Fickner and Duill. Mr. P. J. Dwyer District, ² some of the Sisters and friends of the Institute assisted.
 The ^{stop} school opened Jan. 7. 1906. and progressed beyond all expectations.
