

Letter to Comrade
266 Jackson Park Terrace
October 13th

My dear S. M. Scapellato
Many thanks for your kind letter and generous enclosure.
Many, many times in the day, I find myself saying, May God bless Mr. Henry, and grant him the desires of his heart.
Whenever you have any good news of his success, send me word, and I shall help you to thank God for it. I find this a good plan sometimes when I am in great need of something.
I thank God most heartily for the favor which He him I know he will grant. and I ask it by all the love and sorrow that filled his divine ^{heart} when he beheld the dear "blessed Virgin at the foot of the Cross during his sacred passion & death I find the poor suffering souls find, they are very grateful. I feel sure I got many favors through their prayers especially when offered for the poor souls most forgotten.

I was made a present of ten dollars, and I had a Novena of Masses said daily for the poor souls.
This paper is very poor and so difficult to write on, but I have no other at hand if I allow these few spare moments to slip.

 I may not get another opportunity for a long time there. is the fine minutes to the Recreation. Now dear Good bye. God bless you My Sister Mary, sends her love. She too much better than I. God. I think she will pull through this fit of sickness. She too, is praying for your good brother. When you write give him my kindest regards and sincere thanks for his princely generosity.
 Again Good bye.

Yours sincerely
 M. M. Seraphina

Give my love to Mother Dasetta please. I am glad she had such a pleasant trip. I hope her next will be West.
